NOTABLE NOTABILITY

Bull Worth 56 Grand Bows In Posh Beefy Ranch Debut

By BRUCE COLEMAN

It was a bull's day at Green Gulch Ranch.

The wind was blowing like a cyclone up the gulch from Muir Beach, eucalyptus trees were resounding loudly, and the bulls were in the clover.

More than 100 visitors, many in riding boots and 10-gallon hats, attended yesterday's special occasion, a lunch provided by Mr. and Mrs. George Wheelwright of Green Gulch and Lucky Hereford ranches in honor of a new bull, Vern Notability.

Notability is noted because:

1. He was the English "Bull of the Year" for 1963.

2. His price, $56,000, was the highest ever paid for a Hereford bull imported into the United States.

3. He is one of two bulls judged most perfect by all standards in the last several decades to win first and championship every time shown.

4. He has a straight-lined back and what is called a "square back" which means he has a lot of territory to provide the best cuts of meat.

5. He comes from the Vern, a famous Hereford farm at Herefordshire, England.

VERN NOTABILITY
Distinguished immigrant

Visiting Notability's neat paddock, we also learned that he is almost 3 years old, weighs 1,765 pounds or a little more than the weight of a Volkswagen carrying a man and his wife. He has blue eyes, a beautiful brown and white coat, a large white brisket from which one gets brisket of beef, and is gentle with bull watchers and camera men.

Vern Notability could not have cared less about a lunch in his honor as he munched on clover and grass, the seeds of which had been imported from New Zealand, while visitors, some from as far as Oklahoma, looked him over.

The Wheelwrights plan to use Vern Notability to produce fine Herefords, mainly through artificial insemination.

Visitors took photographs of Vern Notability, patted him and noted his posterior. "He has an unusually big brisket," someone said. "He's quite so-

Vilas Recalled, McBride Named In Lagunitas

331 To 298 Vote; May Be First Of Kind In County

Lagunitas School District Trustee Georgette Vilas was recalled yesterday by a vote of 331 to 298.

Elected to fill her position on the board was William G. McBride, the only candidate running for the office should it become vacant. He received 301 votes. there were four write-in votes for Mrs. Vilas and one for Lawrence Moulton, president of the San Geronimo Valley Assn.

McBride will take office at the meeting of the board on May 19.

Edwin L. Blackmore, director of elementary education for the county schools office, said as far as he knows, this was Marin County's first recall of a school trustee.

CANVASS TUESDAY

Ballots will be canvassed by the county schools office Tuesday. The 18 absentee votes to be counted then are not enough to change the outcome.

Results of the election were known soon after the polls closed at 7 p.m. yesterday. Mrs. Vilas was absent at the regular meeting of the board which convened at 8 p.m. McBride was not present in the audience of about 30 persons.

The recall, a rarity in California, brought to a close a bitter battle in the San Geronimo Valley which began when the school board voted 3-2 last December against renewal of Supt. Clifford L. Frye's contract. Mrs. Vilas was one of the three voting against rehiring Frye.

The board has since signed a contract with a new superintendent to replace Frye July 1. It is a three-year contract and would be impossible to break without considerable cost to the district.

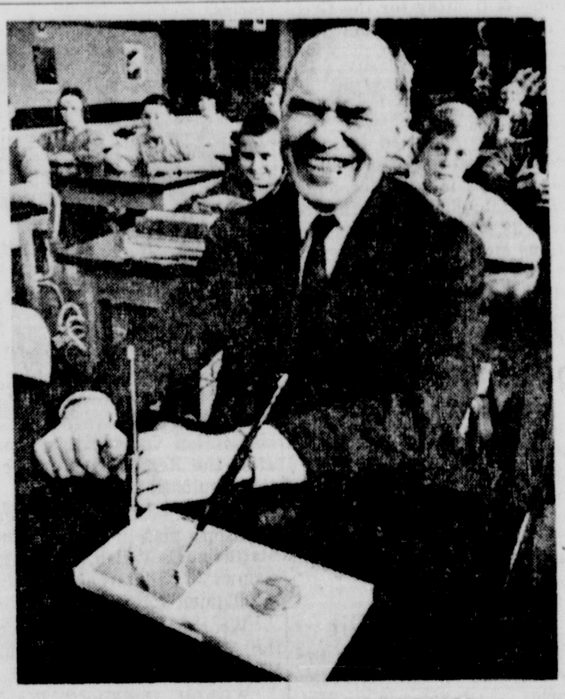
FRYE ISSUE

The Frye issue, however, became lost in a series of charges and counter-charges, centering mostly on the manner in which each side was conducting its campaign. This battle reached its peak Monday when Winifred Frederick of Lagunitas offered $1 each to Independent-Journal newspaper boys in the valley to insert a mimeographed sheet put out by the San Geronimo Valley Citizens Against Recall. Six boys accepted the money and made the insertions, a practice strictly against the I-J's policy.

The last-minute distribution gave those favoring recall little time to answer. However, a mimeographed sheet was mailed yesterday, the day of the election, to all box holders in the valley by the Lagunitas School District Parents Committee.

Yesterday's vote, totaling 649, counting the absentee ballots and two spoiled ballots, represented a turnout of 59 per cent.

Strike Of Negro Pupils Planned For Sausalito



HE NEEDS MORE LESSONS?

President Lyndon B. Johnson's science advisor, Dr. Donald F. Hornig, finds it funny that he has outgrown his old school-days desk. Hornig was given the old seat of learning in ceremony yesterday at Milwaukee, Wis., Steuben Junior High, where he once was pupil. (AP Wirephoto)

CORE Hinted Ready For Demonstration

A one-day "strike" by Negro pupils at two schools in Sausalito School District has been set for May 18, the Independent-Journal learned today.

Approximately 342 Negro youngsters enrolled at Richardson Bay School in Sausalito and Manzanita School in Marin City will stay out of classes that day in a protest reportedly called by the Marin Congress of Racial Equality.

The boycott, according to Marcus F. Davis, district superintendent, is believed to be of larger dimensions than just the Sausalito school district and is to fall on the day after the 10th anniversary of the United States Supreme Court's decision on school desegregation.

Several pupils have spoken to their teachers about the proposed action, one asking Robert D. Thomson, principal at Richardson Bay School, "is it true the Negro youngsters cannot come to school on the 18th?"

TEACHERS HEAR

"I told the boy it was untrue," said Thomson. He added that reports came to several teachers on Monday from pupils.

"We have had several rumbles," said Principal Morris Brown at Manzanita. Brown said he was told that circulars have been sent to Marin City parents at their homes regarding the subject but that he has not seen one.

"I would like to know," said Brown. "We have lunch to make for 100 kids that day."

IT'S INTEGRATED

One teacher, who asked that her name be withheld, said Negro pupils told her that "no one will go to school on the 18th. It's only for white kids." They also spoke of a circular advertising the action.

The teacher said she has been informed that CORE's aim is to get complete integration within the district by September.

Davis said, "the district is integrated."

Douglas J. Quiett, chairman of CORE in Marin, declined to make any comment today except to say, "there is a possibility that there might be something going on on the 18th sponsored by CORE."

Asked what the district

FRANTIC FLYING

Dying Earth Spurs Man To Outer Space

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Why does man want to leave the earth?

1. Separation from parents and place of origin is a step toward maturity.

2. The earth will die, sooner or later, and some mysterious biological drive is already urging us to move on to other worlds.

In a paper prepared for the American Psychiatric Convention, Dr. Floyd S. Cornelison Jr., head of psychiatry at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, said competition between nations for living room seems insufficient to explain man's urge to explore space.

Instead, he said, "We should anticipate that earth, like all things, will mature and die. If man should never leave this sphere then his fate would terminate with that of the earth on which he lives."

The plain truth, Dr. Cornelison said, "is that something is urging us to leave, to fly away—something strong and persistent. And we are responding on cue, frantically."

Citing biological urges in animals and men to leave their places of birth, Dr. Cornelison said it is incredible that we call our planet "mother" earth and suggested:

"In order to survive and pursue our inevitable destiny we may be bound to leave her."

Second Street Construction 'Status Quo'

Conditions on San Rafael's torn-up Second Street, which led a city councilman Monday to propose a shakeup in the public works department, continued largely unchanged today.

The street was still blocked to westbound traffic from Lindaro to A Street. Eastbound cars, however, were being allowed to go the one block from A Street to Brooks Street, where they had to turn left.

There was no indication that barricades were causing any more pileups of confused motorists between Lincoln Avenue and the Irwin Street underpass, however.

It was just such a pileup which led Councilman Fred E. Jensen to propose that the public works department, made autonomous seven years ago, be put back under the city manager.

After surveying the scene, Jensen called it "the dirtiest, sloppiest, worst disorganized job I have ever seen in 40 years in the construction business."

Engle Goes Home After Second Surgery

BOARD CANDIDATES CLASH IN COUNTY

Leydecker Denies Any Conflict Of Interest

By WAT TAKESHITA

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker declared last night that Mayor John F. McInnis's "conflict of interest" charges are "false" and "ridiculous," and the mayor should either present the charges to the grand jury or recant them.

Leydecker lashed out during "candidates" night sponsored by the Marinwood Assn. Candidates Orlando Conti, San Rafael plumbing contractor, McInnis and Leydecker spoke before a gathering of about 80 citizens at the Marinwood Community Center. Douglas McVae, president of Marinwood Assn., was moderator.

Last Thursday during a radio discussion, McInnis said the county paid for a Stanford Institute Study on economic and industrial potential in Marin although the Draper Companies were prepared to fi-

France, Kettenhofen Both Lash Fusselman

By ALAN CUNNINGHAM

A meager audience of about 20 persons turned out last night to hear District Two supervisorial candidates Jess J. France Jr. and Ernest N. Kettenhofen speak at the Marin Arts and Garden Center.

The two candidates spent a large part of the evening telling what they think is wrong with the incumbent, Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who turned down the Ross Valley Democratic Club's invitation to appear along with them.

Only briefly did the two clash openly with each other, although there was sharp disagreement as to who was coming closest to "the issues" in their campaigns.

France, first to speak, said he had decided to run for the office because his 14 to 15 years in the county had been "long enough to realize things

Frosty Winds Buffet Marin In Most Un-Maylike Weather

The mercury dropped to 32 degrees in San Rafael early today. That's freezing and it's May.

Cold winds brought the chill temperatures into Marin yesterday and last night, knocking down trees and cutting out power.

The Weather Bureau predicted warmer weather, however—and the sun came out today to start the warming process.

Gusts up to 41 miles an hour were reported at the top of Mount Tamalpais. But Leonard O. Robertson, in charge of the electrical division of Pacific Gas and Electric Co., estimated that gusts were stronger in Marin's valleys.

In the central area of Mill Valley the power was out twice. It went off for 26 minutes at 5:12 p.m. when a tree fell across a power line at 129 Miller Avenue. It went off again for 38 minutes at 8:15 p.m. when the top of a redwood tree fell across a line at Hillside and West Blithedale avenues. In both cases, 1,200 customers were without power. On the second break, however, 100 customers on West Blithedale remained without power until 11:05 p.m. Robertson said.

Power was off for 19 minutes for 1,000 customers in Kentfield after a tree broke a line on Kent Avenue at 2:53 p.m.

Another tree fell in Tamalpais Valley during the night, but this evidently did not take out any lines.

Woodacre reported a low of 34 degrees early today and Novato had a low of 38.

Snow fell in the Sierra, and chains were required today on U.S. Highways 40 and 50 over the summit.

Anti-Lottery Gain

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly today unanimously passed legislation to make a proposed private lottery unconstitutional. The measure, a constitutional amendment by Assemblyman Nicholas Petris (D-Oakland) now goes to the Senate.

Fluoride Vote Shelved By North Marin Board

There will be no vote on fluoridation June 2 in the North Marin Water District.

Directors of the district last night rescinded action of April 21, calling for an advisory election on fluoridating the district's water supply, because county supervisors last week refused to permit it to be conducted in conjunction with the primary election.

Directors felt the additional $4,000 cost for holding a separate election, with separate polling places, could not be justified. They also doubted whether voters would travel to two polling places on the same day to cast ballots.

Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager, estimated it would cost the district $5,000 to hold a separate election. He had estimated cost at $1,000 if county facilities and personnel were used.

The board took no action on setting the election for a later date, but directors indicated they might consider having the vote in conjunction with the Nov. 3 general election.

The original action of the board was taken at the request of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, which had conducted a community attitudes survey in which 75 per cent of those answering said they favored fluoridation of the water.

PG&E Continues Bodega Battle

The study was aimed at challenging statements by opponents of the Sonoma County site pointing to the Alaska quake as the type of shock that would pose a potential threat to Bodega, which lies near the San Andreas Fault.

Khrushchev Embarks For Visit To Nasser

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev has left the Soviet Union by ship for the United Arab Republic, the government news agency Tass said today.

Khrushchev is due in Cairo Saturday for ceremonies in connection with the Aswan Dam power and irrigation project, being built with the help of Soviet funds and technicians.

Cranston Takes Dare To Debate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — State Controller Alan Cranston has accepted Pierre Salinger's challenge to debate their differences in the race for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Salinger renewed his long-standing request for debate when the two met last night following their appearance at a meeting sponsored by the Jewish Home for the Aged.

In an impromptu debate before television cameras, Cranston agreed to meet the former White House press secretary if their schedules will permit.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Argentina May Oust U.S. Envoy

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — A resolution is before the Argentine Senate requesting the government to expel U.S. Ambassador Robert McClintock because of a comment he made about the cancellation of Argentine contracts with U.S. oil companies.

McClintock

The resolution, submitted last night by five leading senators from President Arturo Illia's Peoples Radical Civic Union, accused the ambassador of interfering in Argentina's internal affairs.

McClintock had planned to leave Argentina Sunday. He is being replaced by Edwin Martin, former U.S. assistant secretary of state for Latin American affairs.

The senators were irate over an article Saturday in the newspaper El Territorio, of Posadas, which quoted McClintock as saying U.S. investments in Argentina would end because of the oil contract cancellations.

Old Friends Toss Party For Truman

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—There was another 80th birthday party today for Harry Truman—this one by the men who were his friends on his climb to the presidency of the United States.

Truman

Truman's birthday is Friday. But he'll be in Washington then for a couple of more parties. The first was last Friday as a tribute by the nation's farmers.

At the annual luncheon, there is a basket lettered on the side with each year, the current one being crossed off. In a ceremony now more than 20 years old, guests drop in birthday cards for Truman to peruse later.

President Lyndon B. Johnson was scheduled to telephone Truman this afternoon. Calls also were expected from Chief Justice Earl Warren in Washington; former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in California and comedian Jack Benny in Hollywood.

S.P. Loses Again In Fight To Quit Train

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Southern Pacific has lost again in its fight to discontinue the Del Monte train between San Jose and Monterey, but he railroad isn't giving up.

Immediately after the State Public Utilities Commission turned down the request yesterday, the railroad said it would petition the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to drop the train.

Mother Of Year

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Mothers committee today named Mrs. L. M. Stavig, 63, wife of the president of Augustana College of Sioux Falls, S.D., as its 1964 mother of the year. Mrs. Stavig is the mother of four sons, all professional men successful in their chosen fields of medicine, English literature and business.

Ex-Farm Aide Dies

Bills Seek To Move Governor's Mansion

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Two measures calling for a new governor's mansion were introduced yesterday in the State Senate.

One, by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez) would provide $650,000 for the site and construction in the Sacramento suburbs. The other, by Sen. Samuel Geddes (D-Napa) asked the legislature to consider building a new mansion at the El Macero development near Davis in Yolo County.

Insurance companies paid out an average of 5.6 million dollars each day last year to help insured persons pay their hospital bills.

Nazi Hiding In Egypt

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany formally asked the United Arab Republic today to extradite fugitive Nazi Hans Walter Zech-Nenntwich. But West German officials said they doubted the request would be granted.

Cyprus Violence Flares

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI)—New and unexpected violence erupted today throughout Cyprus, with an especially dangerous situation building up in the east coast port of Famagusta. The swift rise in tension came as diplomatic sources denied a Turkish Cypriot charge that an American citizen—Haris Psillides of New York, a former U.S. airman of Greek extraction—is fighting for the Greek Cypriots with the knowledge of the U.S. embassy.

Housewife Vice

MINEOLA, N.Y. (UPI) — A grand jury returned 49 indictments yesterday in Long Island's sex in suburbia housewife call girl case. Indicted were 39 persons and 10 corporations on a total of 181 counts in the play for pay case in which several women led split level lives as housewives and prostitutes.

Quads Born, Three Die

LIVERPOOL, England (AP) — Quadruplets were born Tuesday night to Mrs. Tom McKeown, 36, wife of a Liverpool dockworker, but only one still lived today. The three boys and a girl were two months premature. Each weighed only two pounds.

Killer Storms Hit

CHICAGO (AP)—A rash of tornadoes and severe thunderstorms struck areas in six Midwestern states yesterday killing two persons, injuring more than 40 and causing extensive property damage. Heavy rain, hail and tornadic winds swept sections of Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas.

Stassen Loses Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Harold E. Stassen lost another bid to gain a place on California's June 2 Republican presidential primary ballot yesterday. The State Supreme Court denied his request to hold up the mailing of sample ballots until he could argue his case in the courts.

Viet Cabbies Mourn

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —Saigon taxi drivers staged a three-block-long funeral procession today for one of their number whose murder they blamed on an unidentified American. There was no violence during the procession.

LBJ's Heart 'Fine'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite the whirlwind pace he's been keeping, President Lyndon B. Johnson's heart—the heart that suffered an attack in 1955—is apparently still doing fine. That was the indication from the White House today in answer to a query concerning the state of the president's health.

Dinosaur Canyon, 60 miles north of Flagstaff, Ariz., is flanked by immense rocks on which are found tracks of the dinosaur.

Landslide For Taft; Heavy Wallace Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Once again voters have proved how much they like a famous name —and George C. Wallace, Alabama's states' rights governor, has proved he can stir up problems for Democrats even while losing.

Taft

Young

Seven widely scattered primaries were held Tuesday in which:

Wilkinson

Glenn

Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. ran well in a race from which he had withdrawn;

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona picked up Indiana's 32 convention votes in his chase after the Republican presidential nomination;

Wallace lost to President Johnson's man in Indiana, Gov. Matthew E. Welsh, but with around 30 per cent of the votes he claimed victory.

"Wishful thinking," Welsh said.

Goldwater had been expected to breeze in, with Harold E. Stassen supplying minimm opposition. But the former governor of Minnesota picked up around a fourth of the votes cast for his finest showing in years.

Write-ins are illegal in Indiana, and Stassen collected the windfall. In New Hampshire, where Henry Cabot Lodge won with write-ins, Stassen ran a bad sixth and last, with a trifle over 1 per cent of the vote.

In Ohio, Rep. Taft Jr. made his first move toward taking over the Senate seat held by his late father, the "Mr. Republican" of his party. Taft won the GOP nomination with a knockout victory over Secretary of State Ted Brown.

But Democratic Sen. Stephen M. Young, a bouncy 75-year-old who wants to keep his job, found the voters like John H. Glenn Jr. even though a bathroom fall had taken him out of the race. Glenn's name stayed on the ballot, and about one-third of the Democrats voted for him anyway.

Elsewhere around the country there were these developments:

OKLAHOMA—Former football coach Wilkinson was an easy winner in his try for the GOP senatorial nomination. His opponent was to be decided in a runoff between the incumbent Sen. J. Howard Edmondson and State Sen. Fred Harris.

ALABAMA—No question about a Wallace victory here. His slate of unpledged electors won by a lop-sided margin over a pro-Johnson ticket.

In Macon County, Ala., scene of racial unrest, three out of four Negroes seeking office appeared to have won Democratic nomination.

FLORIDA—Spessard L. Holland, a senator for 18 years, won the Democratic nomination for a fourth term.

Cix Democrats were running for governor. Mayor Haydon Burns of Jacksonville and Mayor Robert King High of Miami won spots in the May 26 runoff.

Welsh

Wallace

NEW MEXICO—Land Commissioner E. S. (Johnny) Walker had a narrow lead over State Sen. Fabian Chavez in their race for the Democratic nomination as U.S. representative.

With 4,240 of 4,416 precincts counted, Welsh had 355,632 votes to Wallace's 165,437.

Goldwater led Stassen by 248,986 to 99,535.

In Ohio, with 10,637 of 13,311 precincts reporting, Taft had buried Brown, 505,551 to 139,985.

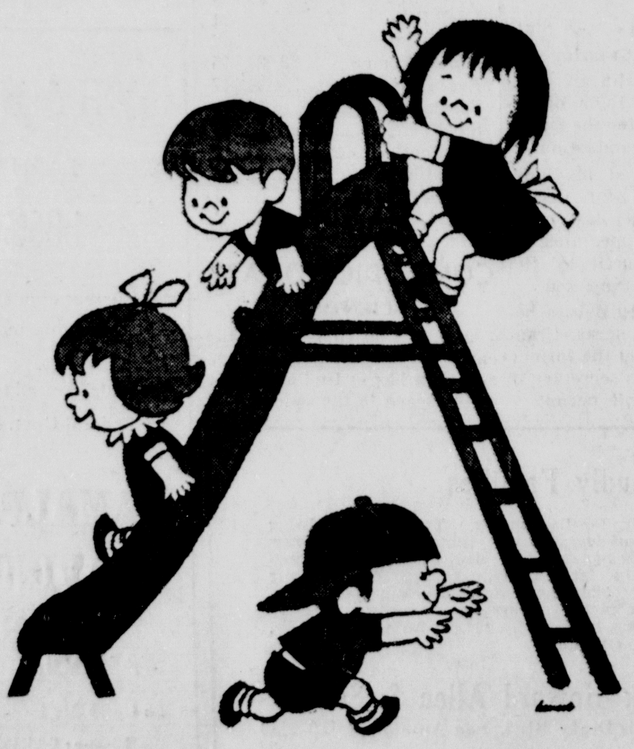
☆ Here's $650,000 for the San Rafael School District ☆



Because new school facilities were needed, you voted to authorize your school district to issue bonds. Bank of America and its associated investment dealers purchased these bonds to give your district the money it needs.

Interest rates on the bonds were decided by competitive bidding—a procedure required by law to obtain the lowest average rate for the taxpayer under current bond market conditions. Interest rates also reflect the credit rating of your district.

We, at Bank of America, bid on virtually all municipal bonds issued in the State—because we have confidence in the future of California and districts like yours.

One thing that gives us confidence is that you and your neighbors wisely recognize the demonstrated truth: good schools benefit all citizens—those with and without children alike. The quality of a community parallels the quality of its schools. This is reflected in property values through the years.

Bank of America and its associates are proud to play a key role in the development of your schools.

You may be interested in buying San Rafael School District Bonds as a personal investment. They offer the advantages of tax exempt income and are available in denominations of $1,000. You can purchase these bonds through your local Bank of America branch—or contact our Municipal Bond Department in San Francisco or Los Angeles.

Ross School Faces Increase In Budget

Building repairs at Ross School, which would have been taken care of by a bond issue defeated by voters last month, probably will raise the school district's 1964-65 budget to $320,000, Supt. William W. Monahan said today.

The prediction followed a special meeting Monday night at which trustees took an exploratory look at the budget, which they will tackle in earnest in July.

Only actions taken were the raising of Monahan's annual salary and the hiring of a new kindergarten teacher.

Monahan said the trustees have decided to use part of the budget to repair the school's roof, remodel classroom lighting, and rent two portable classrooms so as to decrease the number of pupils in each class.

Hiring of two new teachers also will contribute to the increase over this year's $286,000 budget, he said.

While voters last month were turning the proposed $400,000 bond issue, they approved a 50-cent increase in the general tax rate, from $2.20 to $2.70. The tax hike makes the expected $34,000 budget increase possible.

The new teachers, Judith Webb, was hired at $5,700.

Teachers Tell How Johnny Can Read

A crew of eight teachers gave the San Anselmo School District Board a full review of the district's reading program last night, from reading readiness to the enriched reading program.

The report on reading was one in a series of reports to the board on school curriculum.

The board accepted the resignations of teachers, Mrs. Mary Ann Koepp, Mrs. Jeanne Blake and Mrs. Kay Yager, and appointed three new teachers for the 1964-65 school year; Mrs. Beverly McDonald, Mrs. Marilyn Radell and John P. Sydor.

Trustees endorsed a petition being circulated by the San Anselmo Teachers Assn. for an initiative to place an amendment on the Nov. 2 ballot to the basic state allotments per student to local school district.

Parodi reported the district's application for National Defense Education Act funds to improve its science program has been approved.

would do should the boycott take place, Davis responded, "we haven't made any plans . . . at the moment we don't plan any deviation from our regular program. If they stay home, they are truants in the true sense of the law. The only authorized absence is illness."

"We have heard," added the superintendent, "it is not only localized but it is to be promoted on a state-wide or nation-wide project. May 17 is the 10th anniversary of the Supreme Court decision and, since the 17th is on a Sunday, the boycott was put over to May 18."

Davis explained there are 402 pupils at Richardson Bay School, in fifth through eighth grades, and the percentage of Negroes and whites is just about 50-50.

Negroes constitute about 90 per cent of the enrollment at Manzanita where there are 267 pupils in kindergarten through fourth grades.

There has been no hint of a projected boycott at Tamalpais High School, which has a large attendance of Negroes, said Charles Crawford, assistant principal.

Burglary Trial Gets Started

Burglary trial of Theodore Harry Katros, 29, of Southgate, (Los Angeles County) started yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Katros allegedly broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Norwitt at 2 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere, last June 15. Reported stolen by the Norwitts, visiting at Lake Tahoe at time of the burglary, were over $8,000 in furs and jewelry.

Katros was arrested Feb. 8. Joseph Correnti, 40, of San Francisco and formerly of 106 Granada, Corte Madera, was placed on three years probation Nov. 20 on a plea of guilty to receiving stolen property in the burglary.

Novato Child Survives Aspirin-Eating Binge

A 3-year-old Novato girl was in good condition today after eating about 25 aspirin tablets yesterday afternoon.

Dorothy Ada Detrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Detrick of 858 Railroad Avenue, was taken to Novato General Hospital after eating the aspirin. She was sent home, after treatment, and her mother said the child was well today.

Echo Is Due

Don't be alarmed if you see a "star" float across the sky from northwest to southwest early this evening. It is the 13-story-high balloon, Echo II. It is due to pass over Marin at 7:35 p.m. It is also due tomorrow at 7:10 p.m.

Marin City Housing To Be Removed

Cleveland Wrecking Co. of San Francisco was awarded a contract by Marin County Housing Authority commissioners Monday to wreck and remove six temporary World War II apartment buildings in Marin City, to start work in 10 days. Its low bid was $4,110.

There are now 392 tenants living in Marin City under the housing authority control, 100 tenants living in temporary housing. This total figure of 392 is a decrease of 15 since April.

Omar McNally, chairman of the commission, was appointed to represent the authority on the housing for Marin Elderly Committee.

Commissioners at a meeting following the housing authority meeting authorized delivery of a deed to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church for their three and one-half acre site at the entrance to Marin City on Donohue Street. The church will pay $41,956 to the agency for the land. No schedules has been set for church construction but the sanctuary must be completed within a year.

The agency requested that plans for construction of the Village Baptist Church be given within 60 days. On the basis of the plans a decision will be made whether to sell land for a church.

Budget Hike For Library In Larkspur

The Larkspur library board yesterday approved a budget of $13,775 for the next fiscal year, about $1,500 over the present year, according to Mrs. Wilbur Lewis, chairman.

In addition, the board is hoping for a contribution from the city council toward a new library building. The council has already set aside $3,000 for the building, estimated to cost $60,000, and the library board is raising money through such events as a hootenanny to be held at Corte Madera Recreation Center at 8:30 p.m. on May 16.

Mrs. Lewis estimated that the present 12-cent library tax would remain the same under the new budget. The budget will be presented to the city council at today's 8 p.m. meeting.

Neighbor Finds 86-Year-Old Stroke Victim

Lawrence James Darragh, an 86-year-old retired Pacific Gas and Electric Co. employee, was reported in critical condition at San Rafael General Hospital after reportedly suffering a stroke at his home at 240 C Street yesterday afternoon.

Darragh was discovered lying on the living room floor by a neighbor, Norbert L. Schaaf, at 4:35 p.m.

San Rafael police reported that Darragh's daughter had asked Schaaf to check Darragh's apartment. When he did he found Darragh unconscious with a cut on his head and burns of the right shoulder, chest and arms.

There was no report as to the cause of the burns.

Youth Passenger In Death Car

Gary Bradley, 19, of San Rafael, escaped with minor injuries in a San Francisco auto crash last night which killed the driver of the car in which young Bradley was riding, United Press International reported.

The San Rafael youth was a passenger with Patrick Rivette, 19, of San Francisco. At Seventh and Clarendon avenues Rivette had trouble shifting the gears of his newly purchased—but old model—foreign station wagon.

The car overturned and skidded into the path of a truck. Rivette was killed.

Woman Hurt On Way To Work

Flora Dupar, a 37-year-old domestic worker from Vallejo, suffered minor injuries on her way to work today when her car was involved in a two-car collision on Wolfe Grade, south of Wolfe Avenue, San Rafael, at about 8 a.m.

Mrs. Dupar, who suffered pain in her left leg, was taken to Marin General Hospital for examination.

ciable," said Samuel Newsom of Mill Valley. "He cavorts," said Dr. Peter Whitney of Inverness.

Lee said the animals took to sea exceedingly well. Leaving Feb. 6, they did not eat for four or five days but, once they got used to the ship, they ate amazingly well. "We hit five very bad storms," said Lee. Then the animals spent six weeks in quarantine in New Jersey. They adjusted easily to Green Gulch climate, which Lee said is not dissimilar to England's.

"He's a darned good bull," said Lee of Notability. Lee then leaped over a white fence to tell some other visitors about him.

Incumbents Keep Bolinas Utility Directorships

Mrs. Alice P. Cassidy, Robert Baird and John S. Lancaster, all incumbents, were elected board of the Bolinas Beach public utility district. Elected for four years, they take office immediately.

Lancaster tallied the top number of votes, 43; Baird, 41, Cassidy, 26, and Jack Irwin, 23. Fred Davis, vice president of Bolinas Beach Improvement Club, received one vote as a write-in candidate.

Fifty persons turned out to vote in what Mrs. Dorothy M. Paul, secretary, described as "terrible, windy weather." She said this was a very good turnout since there are between 60 and 65 registered voters.

Dixie School Trustees Hold Session Tonight

The Dixie School board will hold a meeting at 8 p.m. today to discuss increases in the school district administrative staff and salaries for principals, and to take action on requesting state aid for construction of a new school in upper Lucas Valley.

The meeting will be in the district office at 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael.

Fairfax Councilmen Delay Informal Meet

Fairfax City Council's informal meeting with department heads has been postponed from Friday to May 15, City Clerk Alice Leonesio announced today. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the council chamber above the firehouse.

At the session, department heads will review their job responsibilities with the councilmen.

OBITUARIES

Harry G. Barney Dies At 43

Harry G. Barney, 43, of 2328 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, died yesterday at a local hospital, following surgery.

A native of Colorado, Barney had lived in San Rafael seven years. He had been employed as a mechanic at a Greenbrae construction firm for two years.

Surviving are his wife, Shirley G. Barney; his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb of East Peoria, Ill., a brother, Andrew Barney of St. Louis, Mo.; seven sisters, Mrs. Margaret Dorne, Mrs. Viola Spono and Mrs. Lucille Nagel of St. Louis, Mrs. Evelyn Martin and Mrs. Joan Hartsell of East Peoria, Mrs. Selma Deitiker of Onslow, Iowa, and Mrs. LaVetta Larson of Rckford, Ill., and three sons, Lloyd E. Barney, George A. Barney and Howard E. Barney.

Funeral will be at noon Friday at Berkeley Hills Chapel, 1600 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley. Burial will be in Golden Gate Cemetery, San Bruno.

ROBERT KIRKWOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Robert G. Kirkwood, manager of the San Francisco Public Utilities Department and former state controller, died last night after suffering his third heart attack in eight days. He was 54.

Kirkwood had been in public service 17 years, having been elected to the State Assembly from the 28th District in 1947.

He served in the Assembly until 1953 when then Gov. Earl Warren selected Kirkwood to fulfill the vacated post of state controller.

In 1958, Alan Cranston defeated Kirkwood. In February 1959, former Mayor George Christopher appointed Kirkwood to the city's utility helm where he served until his death.

WILLIAM MEIN

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—William Wallace Mein, financier and mining engineer, suffered a heart attack yesterday during a Bank of America business meeting and died at Presbyterian Hospital. He was 90.

A native of Nevada City, Mein founded the Calaveras Cement Co., which merged with the Flintkote Co., in 1959, and the Bishop Oil Co.

During World War I, he was appointed "dollar-a-year" director of fertilizer control, carrying out a program that made the United States independent of Germany for its supply of potash and other chemicals.

FRED HAMANN

Funeral for Fred W. Hamann of San Francisco, former Marin County resident, will be at 2 p.m. Friday at McAvoy-O'Hara Co., Geary Boulevard and Tenth Avenue, San Francisco.

Hamann, 68, was stricken with a heart attack while helping a friend on a pipefitting job in San Francisco Monday, and died immediately.

A native of New Jersey, he came to Marin County in 1955 after retiring from a position in Saudi Arabia with the Arabian American Oil Co.

He lived in San Rafael and Fairfax until 1962, when he moved to San Francisco and went to work at Hunters Point Naval Shipyard. He stayed there until last November.

He was a member of United Assn. of Plumbers and Pipefitters Local 784 at the shipyard.

Surviving are his wife, Bertha M. Hamann; three sisters, Mrs. May Higura, Mrs. Cairie Clark and Mrs. Phoebe Brouillette of San Francisco; two brothers, Paul Hamann of San Francisco and Gustav Hamann of Glendale; a stepson, John F. McDaniels of San Francisco, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Florence M. Sharpley of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

NIELS LARSEN

Larsen's sailing career began in 1896; he retired in 1948. He was commodore of the South Pacific merchant fleet in World War II.

Larsen arrived in San Francisco Bay four days after the 1906 earthquake and fire after sailing the clipper ship John Ena from New York around Cape Horn in record time.

SCHOOL GETS A NEW 'CAROUSEL'

A six-month project came to a conclusion when the Marin County kindergarten for the mentally retarded was given this brightly painted carousel, with its horses on the outside, courtesy of the Marin Civic Center Lions Club. A fund drive to pay for the project will be completed later this month. Shown accepting the carousel for the county are Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker (center) and Morrison F. Gardner, special education consultant for the county superintendent of schools. Club co-chairman Joseph Garbarino is at left; other club members, applying finishing touches, are unidentified. COUNTY DEBATING FREE MEAL ISSUE

Probation Official Seeks Policy Approval; Auditor Says On-Duty Dinners Cost $12,600

Staff members at the juvenile hall are given free meals, since they eat with the detainees, and these meals cost the county $12,600 a year, according to auditor-controller Michael Mitchell.

Yesterday probation officer Walter H. Busher asked specific approval by the board of supervisors for the practice, which has been going on since the hall was built.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said he could see no justification in Busher's letter for the county's paying the cost. He asked Country Administrator Alan Bruce to study the matter.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he believed providing meals was a standard practice in such institutions. But Supervisor George H. Ludy commented that deputy sheriffs who eat with prisoners at the county jail must pay for their meals.

Also, Ludy noted, plans for the new juvenile hall dining room, to be built this year, call for a separate dining hall for the staff, so that the presumed justification that the persons are working while eating would not hold true then.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said that when the county hospital was in operation, meals of nurses who were requested to eat at the hospital were provided by the county.

"This is about $35 a day," commented Chairman William A. Gnoss. "Who are they feeding?"

Insurance Men Oust Probe Star

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Don B. Reynolds, the insurance agent who injected President Johnson's name into the Bobby Baker investigation, has been expelled from the Washington area's biggest professional life insurance organization, it was learned today.

Paul Gibson, president of the District of Columbia Life Underwriters Assn., confirmed that Reynolds was expelled last Monday for "conduct unbecoming a member of the association."

Reynolds, of suburban Silver Spring, Md., said he had been accused of making rebates from insurance commissions to Baker, former secretary to senate Democrats who resigned under fire last October.

Paradise Park Gets Go-Ahead

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday approved the master plan for Paradise Beach Park, and gave the park and recreation commission the go-ahead for a start on construction.

But Supervisor William D. Fusselman made it clear that the master plan was only a guide, and complete development, projected over several years, might be changed.

Park Director Kelvin J. Nelson said that park budget contained $28,000 to start the first phase work this fiscal year, and that another $38,000 would need to be budgeted next year.

John F. Barrows, assistant county administrator, reported that the administrator's recommended budget has sliced $10,500 from that figure, delaying rest room construction.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss said he was going to fight for re-insertion in the budget of funds for development of Stafford Lake, now that a park for Southern Marin was assured.

Landscape architect Asa Hanamoto, who drew up the design, said the first phase development at Paradise Park would involve mainly grading and planting.

An average dairy cow gives about seven and one-half quarts of milk per day.

Road Deficiencies Reported To Board

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday was presented with a letter announcing that the county will have road deficiencies of 70 million dollars in the next 10 years, according to state standards.

But Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said the report, which has been submitted to Sacramento, is already out of date, and many existing roads will probably never be brought up to state standards.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker asked for a copy of the report so he would have some idea of how priorities for new roads might be set at budget time.

Frost said he will bring in, at budget time, a five-year plan for construction. He added the state will require a new deficiency report in October, with a new method of classifying types of roads.

The board called for bids to be opened May 26 for relocation of Mar West Street, Tiburon, and for stabilization of the landslide on White's Hill, on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The White's Hill job was put to bid last fall, but all bids were rejected as above engineer's estimate.

Frost said he would also prepare a report on safety devices needed on White's Hill, after the board received a petition asking for a guard rail on the road because several cars have gone over the side and down the steep hillside. He predicted the cost of a railing would be about $5,000.

Wrong Person Named As Receiving Ticket

William Belfor, 49, of 246 Elvia Court, Marinwood, was not cited by the California Highway Patrol for driving with defective brakes when involved in a Sunday traffic accident, as erroneously reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

The car Belfor was driving was stopped in a line of traffic awaiting a green light on Highway 101 at Hamilton Air Force Base when it was hit from the rear by a car driven by Mary Catherine O'Neill, 19, of San Francisco. Miss O'Neill was cited by the highway patrol for faulty brakes.

Knocknaboul Meeting

A special joint meeting of the Terra Linda Community Services District and Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District boards will be held at 8 p.m. today at the Terra Linda Community Center to discuss the proposed Knocknaboul annexation to the two districts.

San Quentin Point Area Is Rezoned

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday approved a new zoning map for point San Quentin, turning down requests for duplex zoning.

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said the zoning proposed was designed for development to match the capacity of the sewer system to be developed jointly with San Quentin prison. William F. Desmond, head of the sanitation division, agreed that no more dense construction could be allowed.

The zoning changes the prison grounds from an industrial to an agricultural zone, and allows one small area of apartments and one small commercial area in the village.

The board asked county counsel Douglas J. Maloney to recommend how best to bring about a unified landscaping plan for Marin City, urged by the Northern California chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

1. Referred to the welfare department a resolution by the Teamsters' union that more direct payments to vendors by allowed, rather than cash payments to welfare recipients.
2. Received a report from Maloney that library employees were not under the jurisdiction of the county personnel commission.
3. Reappointed Ruth B. Cantwell and appointed Stewart W. Purcell to replace Ray Randall on the Inverness Public Utility District board.
4. Rejected a claim for $250,000 by Jane Gray for the death of her husband, Edwin Bernard Gray, who was trapped in a car that plunged into San Francisco Bay from Bridgeway Boulevard, Sausalito., Feb. 2.
5. Rejected a claim for $100,000 from Maison C. Clarke, 37 North Ridgewood Road, Kentfield, and a $35,000 claim for his passenger, Ralph Price, 965 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur, for injuries from an accident on Bon Air bridge Jan. 23. The two claimed the road was icy and no warning was posted.
6. Approved annexation of part of the Reed Woodlands subdivision to the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District.
7. Approved immediate recruitment for an administrative assistant to the public works director, a new post.
8. Agreed to buy for Coyote Creek widening .007 of an acre from Harold C. Farnum for $600, .0698 acre from Herbert R. Buffan for $4,600, and .02 acre from Lester M. Jorgensen for $940.
9. Agreed to write directors of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District asking why the district would not be willing to force an assessment district for sewers in the Tamalpais Woods area, where a health hazard has been declared.
10. Revised the Marinwood master plan to allow an exchange of land proposed for commercial development with land proposed for Townhouse development.
11. Agreed to revise the conditions for Milland Development Co. so construction of a road to Harbor Point would not hold up construction of the entire Milland development.
12. Appointed Monroe S. Green appraiser I, assessor's office; Patricia F. Lemme deputy clerk I, municipal court; Jack W. Schrock agricultural inspector, and Mary T. Kissinger intermediate steno clerk, agricultural commissioner's office; Dr. Joseph Guthrie, county physician (obstetrician), medical department, and Jerome Caron, legal clerk, county clerk's office.

Schoolgirl Injured

Kathryn Magruder, 16, of 125 Rancheria Road, Kentfield, received a back injury about 11 a.m. yesterday while on a trampoline at Redwood High School. She was taken to Marin General Hospital for examination before being sent home.

SHE KNOWS TAXATION'S BARE FACTS

SACRAMEINTO (AP) — A Southern California school teacher did more than protest to state income tax officials that they were taking the shirt off her back . . .

She sent along her panties.

The disgruntled lady, officials report, made out her 1963 income tax check in a somewhat delicate fasion—on a pair of panties—and sent them along to the Franchise Tax Board.

Those gentlemen gulped, then sent the novel check to a bank for payment. The gentlemen at the bank gulped, then honored the payment.

However, when the teacher gets her canceled check back, it's presumed she'll learn that bank canceling procedures these days involve punching holes in checks . . .

Demo Bill Helps GOP Fight Right

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill designed to thwart an alleged right-wing attempt to take control of California's Republican Party was before the Senate today.

The bill, authored by a Democrat, passed the Assembly yesterday with little opposition. The measure would increase from five to eight the number of persons an incumbent Republican legislator or congressman could appoint to the state central committee if the lawmaker was re-nominated for another term.

A nominee who was not an incumbent could name three persons to the committee, the same as now. In addition, each nominee automatically gains a seat for himself.

The legislation was considered significant because of reports Republican right-wingers have entered races virtually conceded to Democrats merely to gain the GOP nominations and seats on the central committee. Author is Tom Bane (D-North Hollywood).

Assemblyman Charles Conrad, of Sherman Oaks, the Republican floor leader, agreed the bill was "designed to give the incumbent members of the minority party a fairer say in the operations of the state central committee."

The bill does not affect Democrats.

Escaped Murderer Is Still At Large

Tariff Paring Negotiations Go Smoothly

GENEVA (AP) — The drive that President John F. Kennedy started to free world trade got a green light today from the chief negotiators at the 75-nation Kennedy Round talks.

The world's trading giants—the United States, Britain and the European Common Market—agreed to negotiate on the basis of a 50 per cent, across-the-board reduction in tariffs. But that is only a goal, and the final cuts won't average that much.

TALKS' GOAL

When negotiations are concluded, in 1965 or 1966, the result should be more business for all and a brake on rising prices. This is the purpose of the Kennedy Round of trade negotiations, which the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade—GATT—opened in Geneva this week.

Even some Communist countries will go along in this attempt to improve trade. Czechoslovakia already is a member of GATT. Poland is working hard for greater participation.

U.S. PLEASED

American officials were pleased to pin down the 50 per cent figure, even as only a basis for work. President Charles de Gaulle's government, fearful of tougher foreign competition for France's growing industry, had opposed setting this reduction, the maximum allowed by American law, as the official aim of the talks.

U.S. tariffs, though twice cut in half over the last 30 years, still are in many cases much higher than the tariffs of other countries.

A rule is to be worked out that will cut these higher American tariffs by the full 50 per cent and reduce the corresponding European tariffs by a lower margin, perhaps 25 per cent.

IT TOOK AN EARTHQUAKE TO RETURN HIS CHECK

In the fiery aftermath of the 1906 quake, people from every walk of life fought to save San Francisco. James Phelan, the financier and civic leader, shed his waistcoat, pitched in alongside hod carriers and stable boys, and took his orders from the burly foreman who bossed their dynamite crew. They were blasting a fire-break through San Francisco's downtown area; as each office building toppled, Phelan wondered—was his own property being spared? Even rumor couldn't cross the raging fire lines. Ironically word came with a scrap of paper that sailed up on the blistering wind. It was one of Phelan's own cancelled checks, and a grim announcement that the Phelan Building had been blasted, all his files and business records scattered to the four winds.

The way James Phelan and the men of his time rallied after the holocaust and honored their obligations, often on a person's word alone, is to their lasting credit. Citizens Federal Savings, which was twenty one years old that year, was a firm of such men. In their tradition, Citizens has offered solid dependability and substantial returns to five generations of Bay Area savers. You are invited to share this heritage today—whether your account begins with less than twenty five dollars or more than twenty five thousand. Just call at the Citizens office nearest you.

Sausalito Recreation Program Gets Boost

Sausalito's city recreation program got a boost last night with gifts of land for a north end playground and $1,000 for playground equipment.

Upon receiving the land offer, Acting Mayor Carl W. Gabrielson said, "This is one of the nicest bits of news we've had in a long while."

The parcel is about equivalent to three duplex lots in size and has oak trees, reported City Mgr. Charles A. Brown. He pointed out that the city has been seeking a playground site in the north end, to round out its playground development program.

Later the council received a letter that the Sausalito Foundation is donating $1,000 for the purchase of playground equipment.

"That's nice and encouraging," said Gabrielson.

The Sausalito City Council also:

1. Denied a $250,000 claim by Mrs. Jane Gray of San Francisco against the city for the death of her husband, Edwin, in an auto accident Feb. 2, 1964. He was a passenger in a car that veered off Bridgeway into the bay. The claim charged improper road maintenance, inadequate traffic control, and a lack of guard rails along Bridgeway.

2. Received a letter from Ramon Sandoval Quilodran, president of the Police Prefecture in Vina Del Mar, Chile, Sausalito's sister city, saying the police there will name their new housing cooperative "Villa Sausalito."

3. Granted Dr. P. G. Huffman a permit for a two-way radio in his car for emergency calls.

4. Received a report from City Mgr. Charles A. Brown on proposed changes in parking operations at downtown parking lots, and agreed to make a field inspection of the lots at 2 p.m. Saturday.

5. Authorized the Department of Public Works to prepare a cost estimate of a sidewalk along Bridgeway from Spring Street to Nevada Street, at the request of the Sausalito Citizens Council.

6. Authorized Councilman Eleanor O'Hara Chapin to cast the council's vote for a representative on the board of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District. The person chosen will represent all Marin cities. Candidates are Councilmen Charles W. Aby of San Rafael and Lucille Cannon of Novato.

7. Received a letter from Mabel Wosser protesting the waterfront development plant of Sausalito Properties and the filling of Richardson Bay.

8. Introduced amendments to three sections of the city's animal control ordinance to bring it into conformity with the county ordinance.

9. Endorsed a street deficiency report by B. J. Whitlow which was sent to the State Division of Highways. The report states the city has 19 miles of deficient streets, either in structure or traffic capacity.

10. Approved a supplemental agreement with the North Bay Cooperative for cooperative library services, but did not commit the city to any expenditure.

11. Ratified payment for purchase of Shelter Cove lots, which was approved by the voters April 14.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

11:55 a.m., Chileno Valley—Grass fire burned area 10 feet wide by 350 feet long on Chileno Valley Road near Dolcini Ranch; no property damage.

6:15 p.m., Tiburon—Fire, starting in radio and spreading through dashboard, caused $475 damage to car of Gordon Leonhardt of San Francisco while parked at end of Martinique Drive, Paradise Quay.

Sausalito Approves Expanded Summer Teen Work Program

Sausalito City Council last night approved an expanded summer work program for teen-agers, including a job for a girl.

The program will provide jobs for nine boys working on cleanup projects in parks, playgrounds and rights-of-way, and for a girl to do clerical work at city hall.

The work program will run for nine weeks, but the boys will be hired in groups of three for three-week periods at $1.25 an hour.

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said last year's program utilizing five boys for two weeks was successful.

"It provides jobs for teenagers and helps to keep the city clean," he said.

The 1964 summer work program will cost $2,129 as compared to $1,075 for last year's program.

Marin Cyclists Plan New Rides

Two new rides of the Marin Cyclists Club start this week and will continue on a regular basis during daylight saving time.

Yesterday, the mid-week tour of from 10 to 20 miles began at the Corte Madera Bike Shop at 5772 Paradise Drive at 7 p.m. A time trial will be held before every 8 p.m. meeting at the bike shop on the first Thursday of each month.

DRAMA, MUSIC, DANCE

Four-Day Art Festival Is Planned At School

A four-day all-arts festival at Del Mar school in the Reed school district, May 14-17, will include orchestral and choral programs, art exhibits, drama, displays of creative writing, and folk dancing.

The orchestra will perform at 7:30 p.m. on May 14, under direction of Leland Lincoln in the school auditorium. The Del Mar chorus, Del Mar choral ensemble, Bel Aire chorus, Reed chorus, and Bel Aire quartets under direction of Dr. Hyman I. Krongard will take the stage at 7:30 p.m. the following day.

The 60-voice Bel Aire chorus received a superior rating when it participated in the recent California Music Educators Choral Festival in Oakland. This is the highest rating awarded. The Del Mar ensemble and the Del Mar chorus received excellent ratings in that competition.

The Del Mar choral ensemble, together with Dr. Krongard, will appear on radio station KTIM tomorrow from 11 to 11:30 a.m.

Saturday's program will include folk dancing at 1 p.m. and a one-act play, "The Happy Journey from Trenton to Camden," by Thornton Wilder, presented by eighth graders.

Creative writing by primary grade students will be exhibited in the auditorium during the festival, together with art work from all the district schools. Seventh and eighth grades have compiled a small booklet of their poems and stories for sale.

Mrs. Leonard Sperry is festival chairman. The festival is a joint effort of the Reed school district and the Reed Parent-Teacher club.

Lagunitas Teachers Win $11,000 In Pay Increases

Trustees of Lagunitas School District last night approved salary schedules for both certified and classified employees that will add about $13,300 to the payroll for next fiscal year.

The board also saw a proposed budget of $205,301. Current budget is $184,056. Supt. Clifford L. Frye said most of the increase will be in salaries and in beefing up the unappropriated reserve. The district auditor has criticized trustees for letting reserves fall too low in the past.

New salary schedule for teachers will provide a range of $5,200 to $10,300 with eight classifications for academic improvement. Current schedule has a range of $5,000 to $8,000 with five classifications. The new schedule will mean an increase of about $11,000 in payroll next fiscal year.

The board also approved a 5 per cent increase for classified employees. This will mean an increase of $2,300 in next year's payroll, Frye said.

The board received a report from its site selection committee recommending purchase of two 10-acre sites for future schools. One would be near the Idylwild Rest Home south of Sir Francis Drake Highway in the east end of the San Geronimo Valley.

The committee was split on the location of a school in the west end of the valley. About half recommended a site near Arroyo and Barranca roads north of Forest Knolls, while others were in favor of a site on Tamal Road, east of Arroyo Road, Frye said.

The board asked for a meeting with the committee for further discussion. Winifred Frederick, committee chairman, said his group is willing to meet with the board.

Trustees learned that Maxine E. Cantrell's third grade class has prepared enough material for a booklet on the history of San Geronimo Valley. Frye said there will be a printing cost for such a booklet and asked the board to consider how it might be financed.

The board adjourned until 8 p.m. May 19.

Group To Reopen Old Landmark

Old St. Hilary's Landmark will be officially reopened on May 12 after undergoing extensive repairs and restoration in preparation for its use as a historical museum and library, botanical center, and community hall.

The annual meeting of the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society will be held that evening at 8 p.m. with a lecture and exhibition, "Early Marin Painters." Dr. Elliot Evans, curator for the Society of California Pioneers, whose doctorate in art and history is from Stanford University, will be introduced by Russell Keil, former president of the pioneers and director on the board of the Landmarks Society.

"Glimpses of Belvedere and Tiburon—The Early Decades" has been published this month by the Landmarks Society to commemorate its fifth anniversary and will be available for the first time at the annual meeting.

No Glenwood Meeting

Scheduled meeting of the Glenwood Homeowners Assn. was postponed from last night to May 13, according to Bud R. Rockwell, president, because of lack of a quorum.

Marin County Show Dog Winner In Weekend

Pitkin of VanStrom, a Russian wolfhound owned by Mrs. Earl D. Dodson of 19 Ranch Road, Los Ranchitos, was a top winner in two shows the past weekend.

He won the best of breed at a show in Santa Rosa Saturday, and best opposite sex title at the Redwood Empire Kennel Show in Petaluma Sunday. At each of the shows, there were more than 1,000 dogs in competition.

France, Kettenhofen Square Off —Both Hit Incumbent Fusselman

are not right in Marin County."

He went from there to the question of "where I stand on issues." Noting that "there is a great deal of overlapping," he set forth a half dozen general topics and elaborated on them.

Under what he called "real economy," France charged that the incumbent had been maintaining the role of "watchdog" of the county's purse strings, but actually has contributed to extravagance and waste.

Kettenhofen, in turn, also dwelled largely on criticism of the incumbent supervisor.

Referring to yesterday's announcement that Fusselman planned to call a meeting on the proposed Corte Madera Creek flood control project, Kettenhofen contended the matter had been delayed three months ago when Fusselman was absent from meetings when the board of supervisors was scheduled to discuss it.

"That was in February," he said, "and now, in mid-May, he comes up with this dramatic announcement."

Kettenhofen outlined his own program for the project, suggestion that it could include creation of a park in the Corte Madera mud flats, using fill dredged in creek widening.

He also urged that the Ross Valley's natural beauty be retained by revising plans which call for protecting the area from any storm which might come in 200 to 500 years.

"I personally would rather enjoy recreational facilities now than be protected for 500 years," he said.

"I propose that the project from Ross downstream be good for 200 to 500 years, and the upstream part be changed to handle a 10 to 20 year storm, thus doing less harm to the beauty of the area."

The only direct confrontation between the two candidates arose as France summarized his points.

Continuing the "anti-Fusselman" theme, France said, "I am not 75 years old, and there is no question about my health..."

Adding that he had "not been backed by any real estate developers" and has "not engaged in real estate development," France concluded that "Mr. Kettenhofen has done the above."

France then quipped that he had nothing against real estate people and did not see why Kettenhofen "has been trying so hard to insist that he has no real estate affiliations."

Kettenhofen replied that he was "grateful to Mr. France" for the chance to depart from his planned statement on "Mr. Fusselman and the issues."

"There are two reasons I have been denying having anything to do with real estate," he said.

"The first is because I do not. The second is because someone in the county—one of Mr. France's supporters—has been going around saying I do."

These comments were made on other topics:

Civic Center — Commenting that "many people still do not accept the fact that it is there." France said the Marin Civic Center is "beautiful and well conceived. I would continue it as planned, with emphasis on building an adequate auditorium."

Kettenhofen said he, too, would continue to follow the center's master plan, "but I do not think it can still be done on a pay-as-you-go program. There will have to some other money involved, with possibly some long-range financing, since it will be used by the second and third generations."

Taxes—Kettenhofen contended such things as the "unfair division" of road tax funds between the county and cities (cities get less) require greater city-county coordination, with some type of go-between agency.

France said existence of from 100 to 120 separate taxing entities in the county, "in a vacuum one from another," calls for coordination, using the "businessman's approach of getting the most good for the least money spent."

Roads—"I think we should find an alternate route for the highway to Point Reyes, rather than through the unpopulated areas," Kettenhofen declared. He said he was startled to learn such a route had never been given serious consideration by state officials until he suggested it.

France complained that largely because of Fusselman, county road construction had been "a particularly bad job in District Two."

LEYDECKER DENIES INTEREST CONFLICT

Supervisor Asserts McInnis Charges On Radio Program False, Ridiculous

Since the manager of Draper Companies also is on the board of Leydecker's Redwood National Bank, McInnis suggested a conflict of interest exists. The mayor also added that Leydecker is involved in a conflict of interest in Draper's purchase of Rat Island near China Camp.

Leydecker termed the charges "absolutely false and so utterly ridiculous as to be beyond the realm of credibility." He called on the mayor to substantiate them.

Last night, Mayor McInnis did not touch on the subject at all. However, McInnis and Leydecker proceeded to clash on other issues.

Conti called for a City and County of Marin as the only answer to coordinated planning for the entire county. He saw a need for more industry to reduce taxes, more community recreation facilities, and better planning.

Conti, who has been San Rafael planning commissioner for six years, said San Rafael will soon have a master plan, "but what good is a master plan if the ordinances have more loopholes than a tennis racket?"

San Rafael planning has been hamstrung by lack of backing from the council and lack of planning help, Conti declared. He called for better pay for key men such as the city planner.

Conti declared a new bay crossing is needed to alleviate traffic, and construction of the Civic Center should be completed instead of having two separate county buildings. "We need action, not someone to give us a lot of doubletalk," he declared.

Conti said he owes no allegiance to any group or individual except the people of the district. He will accept no campaign contribution, he asserted.

McInnis outlined San Rafael's accomplishments during his 11 years on the council and his work with Bay Area and state organizations as evidence of "imaginative and active" leadership.

He helped found the Assn. of Bay Area Governments and worked as chairman of the planning committee, bringing eight counties legally bound together to accomplish regional planning.

McInnis said this had been tried a dozen times since 1901 but never before accomplished.

McInnis charged that at present, many elements of county government are completely uncoordinated.

Leydecker cited some of the projects he has initiated as a supervisor. The county is studying the economic and industrial potential in Marin in an effort to broaden the tax base, a group is studying the possibility of cutting down on the many taxing districts, a minority training program has been launched, and he instituted meetings of county department heads with community organizations.

He said San Rafael had a master plan back in 1948, but none of it was implemented. He said a master plan now is too late—"time has run out."

Leydecker noted that San Rafael sold the old yacht harbor and must now buy back a part of it for right of way. The Third Street firehouse was built in such a way that a major piece of equipment could not get in the front door, and with the widening of Third Street, none of the equipment can now get in, he charged. He said San Rafael streets are so bad that traffic can hardly move.

"I certainly wouldn't call that constructive and imaginative leadership," said Leydecker.

McInnis acknowledged that San Rafael traffic is bad, largely because of the topography. But the state is ready to reconstruct the entrance, with a contract to be let in July. The yacht harbor was sold for about $152,000, but sales tax revenue from that area has more than made up for the loss of the yacht harbor, he claimed. Besides, the harbor was in such condition it would have taken $50,000 to make it operable, and the city was broke at the time.

On the timeliness of the city master plan, the mayor said the population of San Rafael is eventually expected to go from 28,000 to more than 100,000, and there certainly is a need for master planning.

Here are some of the other comments by the three candidates:

McInnis said the county has ignored a two-million-dollar study made in the East Bay to develop a good system of coordinating welfare fund dispersals to eliminate duplication.

To coordinate city and county planning, McInnis suggested a commission or forum on which each of the 10 cities and the county would be represented. Then each planning body would know what others are doing.

Leydecker replied that the volunteer citizen group method will not work. His concept is to have a planning center at the staff level, leaving local planning commissions intact for local decisions. Each locality that wanted planning help could seek it voluntarily from a central planning staff.

"You can't get 10 cities to think alike. There is only one answer—a City and County of Marin," declared Conti. "Nothing else can do it, not ABAG or sandbag or anything else!"

Leydecker said county planning has not been impeccable but it has been better than in most communities.

McInnis challenged that statement. He said county planning has been far from outstanding. Novato tried contracting for county planning service but "became so insensed they threw it out," said McInnis.

Leydecker likes the Civic Center and would continue its construction. He said cost per square foot is not too much different from buildings of concrete chunks and slabs.

McInnis said he has "never been an admirer of Frank Lloyd Wright architecture." He would favor continuing the architectural style "but I'd like to see it a little more practical." He noted these defects: The roof leaks, the interior arrangement makes it difficult to shift furniture, and air conditioning outlets come out on the exterior decks.

Whether he wins the supervisor post or not, McInnis said he would not run for city office again when his term as mayor expires next April.

Studebaker Sued For Quitting U.S.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Studebaker Corp. is being sued for $100,000 for ceasing to manufacture cars in the United States.

The damages are being sought in U.S. District Court by Robert A. Waters, owner of a Studebaker distributorship in San Francisco, who says the company knew it would end its United States operations when it granted him a franchise.

He was awarded the franchise in January 1963. The auto making firm closed down its South Bend, Ind., manufacturing plant 11 months later and shifted operations to Canada.

Group To Study Bills Against Human Rights

The steering committee of the Marin Conference on Religion and Race will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the First Presbyterian Church, San Rafael.

Julian W. Mack of San Rafael, a member of the committee, said one topic for discussion will be the initiative to make the Rumford Fair Housing Act and other such human rights bills unconstitutional.

Corte Madera Sewer Contract Is Awarded

The Corte Madera Sanitary District board last night awarded a contract to Ernest Ongaro and Sons Inc. of San Anselmo to replace sewers on portions of Madera Boulevard, Seminole Avenue and Summit Drive at $20,078.50.

The board decided that it would consider the budget for the next fiscal year at its June 2 meeting.

Bay Model To Stay For Three Years

The scale model of San Francisco Bay in Sausalito will be preserved for at least three years, Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) said today.

Clausen said he and Rep. John F. Baldwin Jr. (R-Martinez) got the assurance from Maj. Gen. Jackson Graham, director of civil works of the Army Corps of Engineers in Washington, D.C.

The scale model, in the former Marinship yard off Bridgeway, has been used by the Corps of Engineers to study bay problems.

Graham told the congressmen that a comprehensive study of the Bay Area was essentially completed, but the corps would make use of the bay model in other tests for at least three years.

Clausen joined Baldwin in seeking an expansion of the model to include a study of the Sacramento-San Joaquin delta as to water supplies, salt water intrusion, and recreation.

The congressmen said these data would be needed in view of the State Water Plan and the Southwest Pacific Water Plan to export water from Northern California.

Marin College Lists Courses For Summer

A record number of 66 credit and non-credit courses are listed in a College of Marin summer session bulletin issued this week.

The summer session will run from June 22 to July 31. The class schedule includes 38 credit classes which will definitely be offered, 14 credit classes which will be offered if there is enough registrations and 14 non-credit classes.

Registration materials for credit classes may be obtained at the Dean of Students office or by mailing a registration application form included in the summer session bulletin.

Mail registrations must be postmarked by June 12. On-campus registration will be held from 9 a.m. to noon June 19, 22 and 23 and from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. June 22 and 23 in room 24 of Harlan Hall. Registration for non-credit classes will be held in class at the first meeting.

New York Mayor Puts His Hat At Ringside

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner said today he had no objection to running for vice president provided President Johnson wanted him to.

Wagner made his statement at Kennedy Airport here following a flight from Los Angeles where he addressed the building service employees international union convention.

Fort Point in the Presidio at San Francisco, first built in 1794 and abandoned in 1914, never fired a shot against an enemy.

Bus Travel's Warmer, Stranded Boaters Find

A bus driver on a holiday was missing overnight in San Pablo Bay with a woman passenger, but he was not in a bus. He was in his 19-foot Chriscraft boat.

Benny C. Cessna, 39, of 28 Villa Avenue, San Rafael, left Loch Lomond Yacht Harbor at 10 a.m. yesterday with a woman passenger. Mrs. Cessna said the woman is a frequent passenger of her husband's Greyhound bus run from San Rafael to San Francisco. She happened to be at the dock when Cessna was leaving for a short spin in the boat he had put in the water yesterday.

Soon after leaving, the battery went dead, Mrs. Cessna said. The inboard motor died and he could not get it started again. The boat drifted.

Yesterday evening, Mrs. Cessna notified the Coast Guard. Two cutters searched through the night, but it was not until a helicopter flight at first light today that the boat was discovered on the mud flats on the other side of the bay. This was at 7:15 a.m.

Cessna and the passenger, both very cold and hungry, were lifted from the boat by helicopter and taken to the California Maritime Academy in Vallejo, where they were served breakfast.

Mrs. Cessna said her husband has been working on the 1960 Chriscraft for several weeks, refitting it. The boat was still on the mud today.

Judge Disqualifies Self In Rights Demonstration Trial

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Municipal Judge Elton Lawless disqualified himself yesterday from hearing a third trial of this city's civil rights demonstrators declaring he had "had enough" from two previous trials.

Lawless had called the case of 10 defendants whose earlier trial before Judge Leo R. Friedman ended in a hung jury. Upon repeated objections by attorney Patrick Hallinan, the judge said, "I've tried two of these cases. That's enough. Get on the stand and disqualify me."

The younger Hallinan took the witness stand and said under questioning by his father, attorney Vincent Hallinan of Belvedere, "he (Judge Lawless) is a very decent guy and a friend of mine. But I don't think I can get a fair trial in his court."

Lawless then disqualified himself and the case was assigned to Judge George Maloney. Earlier, Lawless denied a defense motion by Vincent Hallinan for a new trial in the case of the first 10 civil rights demonstrators who were convicted. He set May 26 for sentencing.

Selection of jurors in the court of Judge Maloney was to begin today.

Transit Low Bid Announced

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The contracting firm of Gallagher and Burke Inc., Oakland, entered the apparent low bid yesterday on the Bay Area Rapid Transit District's first phase of construction.

District directors will award a contract to one of the five bidders May 14.

Gallagher and Burke offered to construct 3-1 miles of test track between Walnut Creek and Concord for $1,518,909.

Other bidders were Piombo Construction Co., San Carlos, $1,591,248; Peter Kiewit Sons Co., Concord, $1,708,489; Gibbons and Reed Co., Burlingame, and Rothchild, Raffin and Weirick, San Francisco, (jointly) $1,719,333, and J. H. Pomeroy and Co., San Francisco, $2,012,731.

Baker Working For Smog Device

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former Senate majority secretary Robert G. (Bobby) Baker, claiming not to have "a care in the world," said today he plans to add to his considerable fortune with an invention that will rid the world of smog.

Baker, in an interview published in a New York newspaper, said he is working with an inventor whom he desribed as "another Michelangelo, another William Shakespeare, a man whose name will be remembered forever."

The dapper Baker seemed unperturbed by the Senate's continuing interest in his financial affairs during his years of power on Capitol Hill. He has just returned from a vacation in Puerto Rico and said "the only thing on my mind besides this magnificent invention is my wife and five kids."

Assault Charge Hearing Slated

Preliminary hearing for James Ernest Terrell, albino Negro from Vallejo charged with assault with a deadly weapon in a San Rafael fracas that resulted in loss of the left eye of his victim, was scheduled yesterday for 9:30 a.m. June 9 in Marin Municipal Court.

Terrell, represented by Donald Warden, Oakland attorney, entered a pea of innocent to assaulting Louis M. Molles Jr., 27, of 11 Roger Drive, San Rafael, on April 25 at King Cotton Restaurant, 831 Francisco Boulevard.

He is free on $1,100 bail.

One Skunk Just Tipsy, Not Rabid, Tests Show

Tests proved that a skunk shot Saturday in Tamalpais Valley was not rabid, the Marin County Health Department reported today.

The skunk was shot by sheriff's deputies in a field adjacent to the home of attorney Richard V. Godino at 449 Tennessee Valley Road, after Godino noticed that it was unable to keep its balance, a rabies symptom.

CITY FEELING OATS?

Novato Gives Plan Advice To County

The young City of Novato (four years old) gave some advice to the County of Marin (over a century old).

The city council, at a session with city department heads, passed a resolution calling on the Marin County Board of Supervisors to adopt an ordinance on land division in North Marin patterned after the Novato city ordinance.

Robert Lagle, head of the city planning department, suggested also that the council reverse procedure by which the county did the city's planning, and have the city do the north Marin area planning for the county.

BORDER CASE SITED

County ordinances are suitable for a rural area, but not for fast growing Novato and its environs, said Lagle.

Lagle used an example McClay, one side of which is the city line. Three new houses were built with street dedication, widening, curbs and gutters and proper set back on the county side. On the opposite side are new houses without proper setback, he said.

City administrator J. Julien Baget opened the discussion with the first full council since the election. Douglas M. Merrill had been sworn into office during the afternoon.

NEW AIDE SOUGHT

Baget asked the council for a finance officer. On suggestion of Mayor Robert D. Carrow, the job was enlarged to include duties of personnel management, purchasing, and setting up a filing system.

Baget also had asked the council for a "modern filing system." He said that other cities, such as Fremont, had paid $30,000 for such a system he thought that Griffenhagen-Kroeger could suggest one for Novato for a fee of $2,000 to $4,000.

Councilman William Jack Adams suggested that Baget visit other cities to learn about their systems and install one of his own.

"Visit Fremont and get the benefit of what they have already paid for," Carrow suggested.

The council authorized hiring Griffenhagen-Kroeger to recruit for the finance officer at a fee not to exceed $750. The position is to be in a salary range of $744 to $904 per month.

The council also authorized hiring a planning technician in a salary range of $583 to $709.

All department heads except Edmund Mahany, director of parks and recreation, who was sick, reported on activities and needs of their departments.

Fred Westfall, head building inspector, said his three-man department probably would be able to keep up with the inspections in the city. He said they made 14 inspections on each house during construction.

He asked the council for a third car, and said his department might need additional outside technical help in checking plans.

Baget said the building department had collected $43,570 in fees for the first 10 months of the fiscal year, with expenses at $24,000.

Police chief Robert Di-Grazia said the city should have four holding cells for prisoners awaiting transfer to county jail or juvenile hall—one each for male and female juveniles and adults.

Also, he urged, there should be a man on duty at the police station 24 hours a day.

Lawrence A. Coleman, director of public works, said "The majority of the public works are now being put in by subdividers," and his department's main job was to check plans and inspect the work.

He said he hoped his department would not need to use county services any more.

"We have a different approach to the problems than the county," he said. Like Lagle, he called the county approach rural. "We're urban," he said.

Tam Unification Debate Planned

The Kentfield Civic League will sponsor a debate on the plan to unify the Tamalpais Union High School District at Olney Hall of College of Marin, May 26 at 8 p.m.

Favoring unification will be Dr. John C. Siemens, candidate for a board position in the new district and present chairman of the Tamalpais High School District board, and Floyd Taylor of the bureau of school district organization in Sacramento.

Arguing against the plan will be George F. McKenna, president of the Kentfield School District board, and Mrs. Rachael Conner, member of the county committee on school district organization.

Corte Madera's Manager Given Power On Pay Hikes

The Corte Madera Town Council last night granted Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow new powers.

Brandow may now adjust town employees' salaries up or down on steps within ranges established by the council. Before, council action was required for step increases.

Councilmen said they believed Corte Madera was the first city government in Marin County to grant its city manager this power. It was suggested by Councilman William W. Collier.

The council granted most of the town's 24 employees increases of one range, effective July 1. This will amount to about a $3,800 increase per year in salaries and represents an average 2.5 per cent increase.

Brandow had recommended that only public works department employees be given raises on July 1 and that other raises become effective Jan. 1.

He made no recommendation for a raise in his own salary. However, the council raised Brandow from $998 to $1,074 per month.

Brandow said today he was "delighted with the council's actions. They went beyond my recommendations."

Secret Meet Is Discussed In Novato

Novato City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. last night told the Novato City Council it can meet behind closed doors to choose a planning commissioner, but not to evaluate performance of city employees.

Mayor Robert D. Carrow announced an executive session for next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. to select a replacement for Douglas M. Merrill on the planning commission, from which Merrill resigned on his election to the city council.

City Attorney Palmer read the council the section of the California Government Code providing for exceptions to the requirement that all meetings of public bodies be held in public. It permits closed meetings for hiring, firing, or hearing charges against an employee or officer.

Palmer's interpretation was that appointing a planning commissioner would be hiring, but the council could not talk about employees unless charges were brought against them.

(Other city attorneys have differed from Palmer's interpretation, holding that appointment to a public commission is in no sense hiring and that it must be done in public.)

Warships Tangle During Maneuvers

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The aircraft carrier Lake Champlain and the destroyer Decatur collided 150 miles east of Cape Henry today during anti-submarine warfare operations.

Atlantic Fleet Headquarters reported no one was injured.

Missing Novatans Trapped By Snow?

Two young fishermen, missing since Sunday night, probably are snowbound in a remote section of Mendocino County, Novato police learned late yesterday.

The missing men had not returned or been heard from this morning, according to Mrs. Walter N. Scott of 728 Bradley Avenue, mother of Norman M. Scott, 21, of Santa Rosa, one of the missing men. The other is Robert Porteous, 20, College of Marin student, of 2206 Oak Knoll Road, Novato.

The forest service station at Covela in Mendocino County reported yesterday that two men who fitted the description of the pair asked about fishing and obtained maps of remote areas there on Friday afternoon.

Sheriff Reno H. Bartolomie of Mendocino County, told Novato police there was about a foot of snow where the men were headed. They left Novato Friday afternoon on a fishing trip, and this was the first word of their whereabouts.

Walter N. Scott, father of Norman, and Robert Porteous, father of Robert, have spent the last two days in the area searching for their sons, according to Mrs. Scott.

Fair Housing Law Defenders Meet

Rodney Larson, field representative from the northern California headquarters for the Californians for Fair Housing, explained plans last night for the campaign against the California Real Estate Association sponsored initiative against fair housing laws.

Acting Marin chairman Harold J. Truett called for names of persons who could aid in the campaign, and then announced that Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker has been named treasurer for the Marin group.

Truett said a speakers bureau would soon be formed and a list of sponsors and contributors to the campaign fund would be drawn up.

The meeting was held in the Civic Center.

French, U.N. Leaders Seem To Be Smoothing Feathers

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant and President Charles de Gaulle of France seem to be having what the one would call a reconciliation and the other a rapprochement.

So it appears from the warm words Thant exchanged with French officials on a four-day visit to Paris last week.

The words haven't always been so warm. For years, France has been standoffish toward the United Nations while in the minority here on such questions as independence for Algeria, France's base in Bizerte, Tunisia, and U.N. intervention in the Congo.

The late Dag Hammarskjold was still secretary-general then. But Thant managed to offend the French after he succeeded Hammarskjold in November 1961.

Thant blandly commented last September that "French foreign policy is based on the conviction that there is no danger of the Soviet Union launching a nuclear attack on Western Europe." He said France felt the North Atlantic Treaty Organization might not be needed and, if NATO was needed, U.S. participation might not be.

In Paris, French sources replied that Thant had no business commenting on a member government's policy.

But when de Gaulle learned Thant was coming to Paris for a coordination meeting with executives of U.N.-affiliated agencies, he invited him to lunch. De Gaulle's prostate operation kept them from meeting, but they exchanged warm notes.

Welfare Officials Will Be On Radio

Three Marin County officials will discuss the county's expanding welfare budget on the Radio KTIM "Marin Sounding Board" at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Appearing with moderator Kitty Oppenheimer will be Welfare Director Betty L. Presley, County Administrator Alan Bruce, and welfare administrator service officer Thomas F. Campanella.

Listeners will be permitted to call in questions for the panelists. The program will be recorded for re-broadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Library Backer Quits, Jibes At 'No Progress'

John J. Gallas, a member of Sausalito Library Board since 1961, resigned last night with the charge that the library has not progressed in 50 years.

The library has not progressed because neither the library boards nor city councils have understood their relationship to each other, he said in his letter of resignation.

He charged that the library is being used "by the local governing board as a political end to achieve political advantage."

Gallas also criticized the failure to provide adequate funds to provide a first class library and he charged "interference" by the city council and city manager.

The council accepted Gallas's resignation and thanked him for his service, but did not comment on his letter.

Earlier in the meeting the council received a letter from Mrs. James J. Carroll of the board listing the deficiencies of the present library above city hall.

Every department in the library is limited in space, but the 'inadequacy is particularly glaring in the children's department," she said.

The council said that funds for a new library will be considered in the preparation of the city's budget.

Bank Group Buys Water, School Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO—A Bank of America N. T. & S. A. underwriting syndicate, which included Wells Fargo Bank, United California Bank and Crocker-Citizens National Bank, has purchased the 100-million-dollar State of California water resources development and state school building aid bonds.

The group purchased 50 million dollars in water resources development bonds, paying a premium of $6,599 for a combination of 5, 4¾, 3.40, 3½, 3.60, 3⅝ and 1/20 of 1 per cent bonds. The dollar price was 100.013. Net interest cost was 3.5329 per cent.

The bonds were reoffered to investors to yield from 2.95 per cent to a dollar price of par on the 3⅝ per cent bonds.

The group also bought 50 million dollars in state school building aid bonds for a premium of $8,649 on a combination of 5, 3.20, 3¼, 3.30, 3.40 and 1/10th of 1 per cent bonds. The dollar bid was 100.017. Net interest cost to the state was 3.2053 per cent.

The bonds were reoffered to investors to yield from 2.25 per cent to a dollar price of par on the 3.40 per cent bonds, according to maturity Nov. 1, 1966-88.

San Franciscan Leaps From Span

The body of Alfred Louis Posse Sr. of San Francisco was recovered shortly after he jumped 300 yards north of the south tower of the bridge at 9:44 a.m.

U.S. Buys More Point Reyes Land

Purchase or options of 30 lots in Drake Beach Estates and an option-purchase agreement on the Thomas Gallagher Ranch near Point Reyes lighthouse were closed yesterday by the federal government.

The lots, all under individual ownership, are being acquired for $300,000, according to Thomas Korwelis, realty officer for the National Park Service.

The 1,165-acre Gallagher Ranch will be purchased for $726,000. Of the total, 104 acres will be purchased now for a price in excess of $70,000. An option on the remainder will be exercised when more money is appropriated by congress.

All land will become part of the Point Reyes National Seashore.

The 104 acres will be part of the Point Reyes Beach development. Picnic tables and parking at the beach and a road leading into the area are to be completed this fall.

Two of the 30 lots acquired have houses on them. The options on lots not purchased at this time run for six months.

Johnson Presses Poverty Crusade

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said today he is pleased with the direction the nation's economy is headed but is concerned with some other aspects of America, including diseases, poverty and civil rights.

He urged the Advertising Council in a prepared speech to get in the front lines in the war on poverty.

"There is hardly a community in this country where poverty does not have some beachhead, and the hardest battles are going to be fought right in your home town," Johnson said.

Sunny Hills Boosters Unveil New Site Plans

The plans call for a complete new plant located on about nine and one-half acres of the Sunny Hills property in San Anselmo. Included will be five cottages, an administration building, recreation building, and swimming pool.

Site development will start within a month, announced Mrs. Robert Kettenbach, Sunny Hills president. Construction is scheduled to begin late this summer with completion expected by the spring or early summer of 1965. The present buildings will be razed.

Estimates are not complete, Mrs. Kettenbach said, but the new plant is expected to cost in excess of $500,000. Carl Gromme is architect, with Harold Engle as structural engineer.

The new buildings will be in the northeast portion of the Sunny Hills property, north of the 13 acres condemned by San Anselmo School District where its new Red Hill School will be built.

Approximately 10 acres fronting on Sir Francis Drake Blvd. have been declared surplus by the board and placed on the market for long-term lease. Joseph Hickingbotham, Dwight Marriman and William Waste are members of the committee handling this phase.

This site to be leased includes the present Grape Festival grounds, but the annual festival will be held there on Oct. 3 this year even if the property has been leased by that time, according to Mrs. Kettenbach.

New Grape Festival grounds of almost five acres, larger than the present site, are included in plans for the development. This area will also be the Sunny Hills recreation area.

The new plant will increase the capacity of Sunny Hills from 35 to 40, plus 12 in the present two group homes.

Last night's dinner, an adjourned session of the Sunnny Hills annual meeting, was attended by 160 persons. Speakers were Mrs. Kettenbach and Richard Pancost, executive director. The Sunny Hills "strolling players," a group of seven young singers and musicians, provided entertainment.

Marinite Is Due Honors Graduation

James E. Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gorman of 93 Marina Court, San Rafael, will graduate from University of Portland in June magna cum laude. He has been named to Delta Epsilon Sigma, national scholastic honor society for students attending Roman Catholic universities.

U.S. Stays Pat On Photo Jets Above Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today the United States will continue to fly aerial reconnaissance missions over Cuba whether or not the Soviets turn over to Cuba the antiaircraft missle batteries they installed.

Any such transfer of control "will not affect our need for or our plans for aerial reconnaissance," McNamara told the Advertising Council.

He stressed that the United States, under both Presidents John F. Kennedy and Johnson, stated very clearly "that we must have satisfactory inspection of Cuba to be sure that offensive weapons such as ballistic missles are not introduced in that country."

In the absence of on-site inspection, McNamara said, the United States must fly aerial reconnaissance over Fidel Castro's country.

As for future prospects in Cuba, McNamara said that in view of the police state methods which have been applied to the population, he does not believe "we can expect any internal revolt in Cuba."

He covered a wide range of subjects in a brief talk and a question and answer session:

Vietnam: "It is a very serious situation" but he expects to start seeing some improvement in the next few months. "It's going to be slow. It can't be won quickly—no guerrilla war ever has been."

Red China. Because of agricultural and economic pro- and a lack of aircraft spare parts, he does not expect Red China to be a first-class military power for "many, many years."

Spending: The cost reduction program aimed at reducing operating expenses $4 billion a year by 1967 is on schedule. If the economy program continues to do as well "we can expect our defense budget at least in relative terms to decline in future years."

Partnerless Parents Will Hear Suntzeff

Nicholas M. Suntzeff, executive director of the Family Service Agency of Marin, will speak to members of Parents Without Partners at 7:45 p.m. tomorrow at West End Schol in San Rafael.

Suntzeff's talk will be titled, "Remarriage: Will it solve our problems?" The group is made up of parents who have lost husbands or wives through death or divorce.

Sausalito Holding Fast To Zone Law, Denies Variances

The Sausalito City Council held fast to its new zoning ordinance last night in upholding planning commission denial of variances for a six-story, six-unit apartment house at 815 Bridgeway.

After a one-hour hearing, the council voted 4-0 against setback, height and density variances for the apartments.

Attorney John L. Rockwell of San Rafael, representing the applicant, Joseph Kane, reviewed the two and one-half year history of the application and argued that the variances were the best solution to the problem.

The council said an applicant has to show hardship to obtain a variance. Councilmen felt this had not been shown.

Rockwell said the newly elected Councilman Melvin S. Wax should disqualify himself because he was chairman of the planning commission, whose decision was being appealed.

City Atty. Leland H. Jordan said there was no legal requirement that Wax be disqualified. Therefore he voted.

Councilmen agreed that they would undermine the effect of the new ordinance and open the door for other variances if they granted Kane's applications.

After another public hearing, the council voted 3 to 1 to confirm assessments levied for street improvements along Sausailto Boulevard. Mrs. Eleanor O'Hara Chapin cast the dissenting vote.

The council received letters from James C. McConnell and M. Phyllis Woodbridge protesting assessments levied against their properties.

The council also granted Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. a permit to construct an addition to its existing building at 414 Turney Street after a public hearing at which no one spoke either for or against the permit.

Glenwood Meet Stalled

Directors of the Glenwood Home Owners Assn. postponed last night's scheduled meeting because of a lack of a quorum. They will meet next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Church of the Redeemer.

Estate Valued At $247,516

Joint tenancy estate of Blanche C. Stone, longtime Marin County resident who died May 19, 1963, has a clear market value of $247,516, an inheritance tax appraisal report revealed today.

The joint tenancy is shared with Josephine Arnone, 360 Vista Grande, Greenbrae, and Olive Mervyn, sister of Mrs. Stone. All resided at the Vista Grande residence.

A will by Mrs. Stone, signed June 5, 1962, left $20,000 to a brother, Milton S. York, Willoughby, Ohio, $5,000 to a niece, Alice Davis, also of Willoughby, and the remainder to the joint tenants.

Rustling Suspect Gone, Court Alerts Posse

Warrant for arrest of Earl Calvin Westerfield, 39-year-old Marin County ranch hand charged with cattle rustling, was issued yesterday when he failed to appear for trial in Marin Superior Court. Bail of $1,100 was also forfeited.

Westerfield, an employee of the Dr. James H. Kleiser ranch at 5325 Chileno Valley Road in the northwest portion of the county, is accused of taking five cattle from the ranch on March 10. He was arrested March 18.

POLITICAL BRIEFS

Candidate Murphy To Speak Tonight

George Murphy, former Hollywood entertainer who is running for Republican nomination for U.S. Senate, will speak tonight in San Rafael at Dominic's Restaurant.

His talk is sponsored by the Republican Alliance. No-host cocktails will be from 6 to 8 p.m., with dinner at 8.

FOR CRANSTON

James Smith, president of the Marin County Labor Council, has been named Marin County labor co-chairman of the Alan Cranston for U.S. Senate Committee.

Smith is a member of the board of directors of the Human Rights Commission of Marin, a member of the executive board of the Committee on Political Education (AFL-CIO), and a member of Butchers Union Local 115.

OPEN HOUSE

Mayor John F. McInnis, running for supervisor in district one, will be honored at an "open house" at 7 p.m. next Monday at the office of Maggi Walker Realtor.

The office is at 2106 Fourth Street on the Miracle Mile. Refreshments will be served.

ON LEAVE

George McCabe of Santa Rosa, candidate for Democratic nomination for Congress is taking leave of absence from his administrative position at Sonoma State College to devote fulltime to his campaign.

He estimates he has shaken hands with more than 10,000 residents of the Redwood Empire in the past eight months.

FRANCE AIDES

Edward W. Bullard Jr. of Ross has been appointed chairman of the finance committee for Jess J. France Jr. in his drive to unseat Supervisor William D. Fusselman in the Second District. Bullard is president of a safety equipment manufacturing firm in Sausalito.

Supervisors Reject Claim For Damages

Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday rejected a $75,000 claim by Charles Marvin Farmer of Stockton for damages in an assault on him by Marin County Sheriff's Deputy George Johnsen, 33.

Farmer had filed the claim, $50,000 punitive damages and $25,000 general damages, with both the board of supervisors and with the City of San Rafael.

The latter has referred the claim to its insurance agent.

The claim named defendants as Marin County, San Rafael, Johnson, Edward McKamey, William Bradford, Richard Keaton, Phil Green and Art Meyers. It was filed for Farmer by Robert N. Barbour Stockton attorney.

Johnsen was fired last February by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos after being accused of hitting Farmer while the latter was in custody of San Rafael police.

FIRST LEASE CUSTOMER

Doug Dicker, Chrysler-Plymouth's new leasing division in San Rafael had its first car lessee in Warner Brothers starlet Jeanne Markall of San Francisco who picked a 1964 Cadillac convertible to commute between the Bay Area and Hollywood. Miss Markall, who has appeared for the past season on the television production "Surfside Six," is shown receiving her keys from Dicker's lease manager Don Pitts.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Several Hundred People Attend Kaehler-Farrar Building Opening

Several hundred people attended the opening ceremonies for the new Kaehler-Farrar Building last Friday evening, and no doubt for many of them it was their first visit to downtown San Rafael's highest office building. Since there is a lavish expanse of window glass used throughout, almost every floor has some kind of a viewsite.

The designation of floor numbers has been a little confusing. The European custom of calling the first floor the ground floor, and the second floor the first floor, was used on the elevator buttons. This is being changed—so you won't end up in Pendergrass and McKenny's penthouse location (they haven't moved in yet) when looking for John Boccignone's fifth floor restaurant (opening July 1).

But this is a minor correction for what could have happened in any new venture. The building is a credit to San Rafael's business area, and we wish for its speedy occupancy of all space available. Charles W. Mapes and Co. is the lease agent.

A NEW women's apparel store has been opened at 1106 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur by Mrs. Phoebe W. Marks of Greenbrae. It will be known as Larkwood Village Shop—and is located next door to the Kentfield Post Office, across from Francis Avenue.

It is Mrs. Marks' first venture in this type of business. She will handle casual and country-type wear. Hours are 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Mondays through Saturdays.

MARIN ARCHITECT Felix M. (Pete) Warburg, who has maintained offices at 24 H Street, San Rafael, has announced the discontinuance of his practice at this address. He is now associated with the landscape architectural firm of Lawrence Halprin and Associates, 1620 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, and is devoting his full time to its interests.

TWO MORE LEASES have been signed by out of town merchants for space in unit number two of the Northgate Regional Shopping Center. Sidney Golden, owner of Sidney's Men's Shop on Market Street, San Francisco, is taking 2,400 square feet for a store to sell young men's and boy's wear. No name for the store has been chosen. It will be Golden's first branch. Open about the first of next year.

Howard M. Stern's Luggage in San Jose has signed for 1,203 square feet for a luggage and leather goods store which will carry the same name. This won't be open until around May, 1965. Stern has two stores in San Jose; this will be his first branch outside of Santa Clara County.

Market Closes Higher During Heavy Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed slightly higher today in the heaviest trading of the week.

Key issues gained fractions to a point or so and a sprinkling of blue chips gave up as much as a point.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.7 million shares compared with 5.35 million yesterday.

Steel, oil and chemical sections showed the way as the popular market averages hovered at all-time peaks. A number of issues trading ex dividend provided a substantial drag on the averages.

The price trend was uncertain most of the morning but by early afternoon it appeared that the three-day recovery would continue.

Most gains were fractional although a number of blue chip issues picked up a point or so.

The steel group apparently was helped by a trade prediction that June operating rates would dip 5 to 15 per cent, somewhat less than the normal seasonal letdown. Jones and Laughlin was up about 1½ despite trading ex dividend. Fractional gains were posted by Bethlehem (ex dividend), Republic, and National Steel was unchanged.

Autos were spotty. On the plus side were G.M., Chrysler and Studebaker.

For the sixth straight session Texas Gulf Sulphur and Curtis Publishing looked like the volume leaders. Both were off around 2 at one time but slowly recovered to show a small net change.

American Stock Exchange prices were mixed.

Coffee Break Pays Off

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Louisville Patrolman Joseph Kukla and Donald Bowman missed an early morning coffee break but they have no complaint.

As they drove up in front of a cafe, a man ran out with a waitress in pursuits. "Stop him," she yelled, "he just held me up."

Tobacco Crops Hit Records In Georgia

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—For the first time in history, Georgia farmers have produced more than a ton of tobacco per acre.

The Crop Reporting Service of the University of Georgia says farmers passed the one-ton-an-acre mark in 1963 with a yield of 2,003 pounds—503 pounds above the goal set for 1965.

Kaiser Industries Corp. Reports Loss

OAKLAND (AP) — Kaiser Industries Corp. reported today a 1964 first quarter consolidated net loss of $59,000 compared with net earnings of $363,000 a year ago.

It said Kaiser Jeep recorded a $528,000 first quarter operating loss compared with a profit of 1.3 million dollars in the 1963 first quarter.

Passenger Sales

DETROIT—Retail sales of Chrysler Corp. passenger cars in April were 104,490 units, the best for the month since 1957 and 18 per cent over April last year.

Forest Industry

NEW YORK (UPI) — The forest industry in the United States now ranks third among manufacturing industries in number of workers and fifth in payrolls.

Cadillac Sales

DETROIT—Cadillac April sales reached an all-time high for the month and marked the fifth consecutive new monthly sales record, it was reported by Harold G. Warner, general manager of Cadillac.

Olds Sales Increase

LANSING—Oldsmobile sales for April were best for the month in nine years, it was announced today by the division's general sales manager, Emmett P. Feely.

Important Oil Field Discovery Announced

BAKERSFIELD (AP) — An important oil discovery in the White Wolf area, 25 miles south of Bakersfield, has been reported by the Occidental Petroleum Corp.

The company expects to drill a minimum of 150 wells in the area. Company engineers estimate the field will earn 4.8 million dollars a year for 25 years. Drilling costs were estimated at 12 million dollars.

Crown Zellerbach Will Join South Africa Firm

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Crown Zellerbach Corp. has announced it will join with S. A. Paper Processing Ltd. of Johannesburg to build a new mill for the manufacture of household paper products in South Africa.

Teh mill will be operated by a newly formed South African company, Crown-Carlton Paper Mills Ltd., on a 50-50 ownership basis. Total cost of the project will be 7.5 million dollars, the announcement said.

Celanese Reports

Celanese Corp. of America today has reported net earnings of $9,887,000, equal to $1.01 per share on the 8,697,506 shares outstanding at March 31. This compares with 1963 first quarter earnings of $6,673,000, equal to 73 cents per share on the 7,715,116 shares then outstanding.

U.S. Drying Up Gold Outflow

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon said today that the U.S. balance of payments deficit was reduced to an annual rate of between 1 billion dollars and 1.25 billion dollars during the first quarter of this year.

The deficit, which has been averaging 3.6 billion dollars for the past six years, is a threat to the U.S. gold supply.

Dillon told a meeting of the advertising council that U.S. payments were "approximately in balance" during the first quarter, if no account is taken of some temporary flows of short term capital.

Dodge Sales Up

DETROIT—Sales of Dodge cars last month hit an all time high, general manager Byron J. Nichols announced today.

Stanford Power Line Job Let

BERKELEY (UPI)—The Atomic Energy Commission announced today it has awarded a contract for design of the bitterly contested power line for the Stanford linear accelerator.

It did ont announce, however, any decision as to whether the line will be above or below the ground—although it said it was favorably disposed" to an overhead line.

Sverdrup and Pacel and Associates Inc. of San Francisco won the contract to serve as architect-engineer for the project, which involves building a 5.3-mile power transmission line capable of carrying 220 kilovolt, 300 megawatt power to the linear accelerator center.

In 1963, fire took approximately 11,800 lives in the United States.

NORMAN A. WELCH
AMA president-elect

AMA Head To Speak In County

Dr. Norman A. Welch of Boston, Mass., president-elect of the American Medical Assn., will come to Marin County tomorrow to speak at the dinner meeting of the Marin Medical Society.

The meeting will be at 7 p.m. at the Meadow Club above Fairfax.

Dr. Welch, an internist, will become the national association's 118th president on June 23 in San Francisco. He has served on the AMA's policy-making house of delegates since 1951 and was speaker for the house of delegates from 1959 to last year.

A graduate of Tufts College Medical School, Medford, Mass., in 1926, he served as intern and resident at Carney Hospital, Boston. From 1943 to 1957, he was clinical professor at Tufts and physician in chief at Carney Hospital. From 1933 to 1943, he served on the faculty of Boston University School of Medicine.

Since 1950, he has been president of Massachusetts Medical Service (Blue Shield) and served as chairman of the National Blue Shield Commission from 1955 to 1958.

He now serves as consultant physician for five Massachusetts hospitals.

He and his wife, Katherine, have four daughters and a son.

Another Great Job By Shaw Has Giants Flying High

Bob Shaw reigns as the newest San Francisco hero today. The Giants head the National League after the newly acquired relief hurler figured prominently in three of the last four games.

He won two of them and saved another — the latter in a 2-1 decision over the Houston Colts on a windy, cold Tuesday night when Shaw faced two batters and recorded two strike-outs.

The day before he was the winning pitcher in a 12-inning bout with the Colts and he won on Saturday night in Los Angeles in another 12-frame marathon. So far he's appeared eight times in San Francisco's 16 games of 1964, notched three victories and saved three other games.

It wouldn't bother him at all to pitch today as the Giants faced the Chicago Cubs in the opener of a two-game series.

"That's what I'm in uniform for," says the sandy haired hurler. "You can't make any money if you're not pitching."

Manager Alvin Dark terms Shaw the missing ingredient of the 1963 team and explained, "I want to use him as late in games as possible and if we have a lead if possible."

A year ago, a big weakness with the 1962 champions was their inability to hold leads late in games. They just didn't have a dependable late inning reliever. Stu Miller, the fireman of 1962, had been traded to Baltimore.

So in the winter trading season, they got Shaw from the Milwaukee Braves in the multi-player trade that brought left-handed pitcher Bob Hendley and catcher Del Crandall to the Giants in trade for outfielder Felipe Alou, catcher Ed Bailey, pitcher Billy Hoeft and infielder Ernie Bowman.

Shaw was the man the Giants wanted the most.

Tuesday night he showed the shivering Candlestick fans just why.

He came on in the ninth with two out and runners on first and second, relieving Jack Sanford who had yielded singles to Rusty Staub and John Bateman.

He got Mike White to take a called third strike and then struck out Eddie Kasko to end the game.

"Sliders were the third strike pitch both times," Shaw said after the game. "I had thrown three straight fast balls to Kasko and then he fouled off a change-up."

Kasko's foul just missed being fair, but it missed and Shaw had his save — his third of the season.

With Willie Mays benched as a precaution against further injury to his pulled leg muscle, Matty Alou took over in center field and contributed three of the Giants' 10 hits. One drove in his brother, Jesus, with the second and deciding San Francisco run.

Sanford recorded his third victory of the year against two setbacks and said he thought the pitcher has the advantage in the cold weather.

"You jam a batter with a pitch and when he hits the ball, his hands will sting for 15 minutes," said the fast ball expert. And strangely enough, Sanford said his curve ball was working well despite the 40 mile-per-hour winds.

Terra Linda Grabs Lead; Novato Wins

Trojans Top San Rafael By 9 To 5

In a battle for the lead in the Marin Athletic League baseball race, Terra Linda High School emerged the victor over San Rafael High yesterday, 9-5.

The Trojans bunched eight runs in the first three innings to offset a fine display of power-hitting by the losers.

Terra Linda got two in the first on one hit and two costly Bulldog skulls. Rod Monti, first baseman for San Rafael, pounded a two-run double in the Red-and-White half of the opening frame to knot the score.

The Trojans struck back in the second with five big runs. Bill Hill led off with a single, and one out later, Ed Beckley drew a base-on-balls. Dan Herrera, the Terra Linda first baseman, stroked a single to score Hill, and John Forry followed with another single to load the bases. When John Clifford, the next Trojan batter, hit one to the Bulldog shortstop, the San Rafael player went to home to shut out the run, but the throw was too late and Beckley was in for 4-2, Terra Linda.

A base-on-balls and two more Bulldog errors gave the Trojans another run in the third.

San Rafael's Ken Erdman drove in one run in the fourth with a triple, and came in to score on pinch-hitter Dave Misakian's ground-out. The final run for the Bulldogs came in the next inning on Dan Bell's lead-off home run.

A last Terra Linda run in the ninth added insult to injury, and the Trojans mopped up to take the league lead.

Hornets Nip Redwood On Grand Slam

George Scherba of Novato High School powered a grand slam homer to help the Hornets to a 7-6 Marin Athletic League win over the Redwood High baseballers yesterday.

Scherba's blast came in the fifth inning with the Giants leading, 4-1, and started the Novatans on their way to the victory. For the hapless Redwood team, it was its fourth straight MAL loss by one run; since winning the county tournament in March, the Giants have been unable to buy a win.

Novato began to hit in the fifth. Jerry Howarth led off with a single and Hornet catcher Ron Rowell duplicated that. After the Giants caught Howarth in a rundown, John and Dolinsek himself scored on up with another safety and Rowell went to third. After Nick Willard popped out, Charles Larsen got on by an error and Rowell scored the first Hornet run. A walk to Tom Miller set the stage for Scherba and his big bat.

In the sixth, Dolinsek's triple was good for a run batted in, and Dolinek himself scored on Willard's sacrifice fly.

Redwood jumped to a 4-0 lead in thet first two frames, but couldn't find a big inning after that. Pat Puccinelli turned one of Chuck Overmeyer's tosses into a four-bagger with Don Roby on in the first inning, and three singles and a walk gave the Giants their two in the second.

Tam Swimmers Bow To Santa Rosa

Varsity swimmers of Tamalpais High School suffered a 75-20 setback at the hands of Santa Rosa's Montgomery High yesterday in a practice meet at Tam's pool.

Best performance for Tam was a 4 minute, 31.8 seconds clocking in the 400-yard freestyle by Steve Donaldson.

Drake Rips College '9'

Gary Kerch, a junior from Drake High School, hurled a five-hitter as the Pirates walloped the College of Marin, 11-2, in a practice baseball game yesterday.

Kerch went the distance, striking out nine while walking six. Meantime, the Drake batters were tearing up three Tar pitchers for ten hits. The Pirates failed to score in only one inning, and mangled the college nine in the third frame with five straight hits for five runs.

Batteries: Walker, Smith (5), Finn (6) and Curley; Kerch and Hannigan, A. Simontacchi (2).

Marin Cats Nip Tam On Three Hits

The red-hot Marin Catholic High School baseball team managed four runs on just three hits to edge Tamalpais yesterday, 4-3 for their third straight Marin Athletic League win within a week.

The Wildcats were led by their young hurler, Ben Burch, who went the distance and also drove in the winning run in the fourth frame. Unbelievably, Dick Daniels of Tamalpais struck out 16 enemy batsmen in the six innings he worked, and still lost the game.

In the first inning, second baseman Jim Langbehn led off for Marin Catholic by striking out. When the Tam catcher, Gary Stephens, couldn't hold the ball, Jim hot-footed it to first. After an out made by Vin Sherry, Dave Beswick, this week's I-J Prep-of-the-Week, got on via an Indian error. Bob Lombardi of Marin and Stephens teamed up to duplicate the Langbehn-Stephens performance, and Langbehn came in to score. The Wildcats managed to score a run without a hit and after every baserunner should have been set down on strikes or simple fielding plays!

In the second frame, Marin came up with two runs on just two hits. Bob Redding singled, went to second on a throwing error, and Rick Bacich walked. Burch sacrificed everybody along, and Langbehn turned a squeeze-bunt into a hit and drove in Redding. Bacich followed Redding when the Indians made a futile attempt to catch Langbehn at first and threw the ball away.

After Tamalpais came up with three tallies in the third, Marin Catholic found itself tied up, and Daniels was still throwing strikes. But in the fourth, with one out, Bacich got on base when the Indians erred again. Burch, a sophomore, who turned in 10 strikeouts himself, rapped a double and Bacich came all the way around with the winning run.

NATIONAL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Washburn's Hot Comeback Big Boost To Cards' Hopes

U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Most people would automatically say Sandy Koufax. Others might name Juan Marichal, Jim Maloney or Al Downing.

But Branch Rickey passes over all of them and singles out Ray Washburn, a 25-year-old right-handed perfectionist whom the St. Louis Cardinals called back up from the minors only last week.

Rickey, the 83-year-old special consultant for the Cardinals who has seen them all from Walter Johnson on down to the rawest rookies in the game today, claims Washburn owns "the greatest natural gifts" of any pitcher who has ever worn a toe-plate.

Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane goes along with Rickey to this extent: Whenever anyone asks him how the Cards will do this year, he replies: "A lot depends on Washburn."

Washburn boosted St. Louis into fourth place last night with a 2-1 victory over Philadelphia even though he needed a bit of help from Ron Taylor in the ninth inning.

FIRST VICTORY

It was the first victory of the season for the husky fastballer from Burbank, Wash., who won his first five games in a row for the Cards last year, then suffered a shoulder ailment that forced him back to the minors.

Still not entirely certain that his shoulder was sound again, the Cardinals sent Washburn to their Jacksonville farm in the International League a few weeks ago but brought him right back after he tossed a two-hitter against Toronto on April 29.

The Giants maintained their one-game hold on first place with a 2-1 win over the Colts, the Reds defeated the Pirates, 5-4, and the Braves blanked the Mets, 6-0, in the only other National League games scheduled.

RED RALLY

Pete Rose's single with the bases loaded in the ninth capped a three-run rally by the Reds that overtook the Pirates. Frank Robinson tied the score in the same frame when he socked his second homer of the game with one aboard. Earlier, Gene Freese hit his third homer of the year for the Pirates and Donn Clendenon his second.

Warren Spahn was just too much for the Mets as he stopped them on four hits and also contributed a two-run double to the Braves' attack. The victory, Milwaukee's fourth in a row, evened Spahn's season record at 2-2 and was the 352nd of his career as well as his 63rd major league shutout.

Redwood, Tam Netters Score Big Victories

Tennis action in the Marin Athletic League yesterday was a little one-sided. Redwood High School gave the horse collar to Drake High, 5-0; and Tamalpais shut out Terra Linda, also 5-0.

The Giant netmen won every set to complete their first round of MAL play with a perfect record. The Tamalpais squad also won all the sets in its romp over the Trojans.

Complete results:

Redwood 5, Drake 0

Military Academy Wins Year's Final Dual Track Meet

San Rafael Military Academy wrapped up its 1964 track dual meet season last week with wins over Lick School of San Francisco in varsity and B competition.

The academy varsity wound up with a 4-4 mark for the season, while the B team finished with seven wins and only one loss.

Freshman Hurler In Spectacular 10-Inning Job

Redwood High's star all-around freshman athlete Kevin Wilson turned in a spectacular pitching performance Friday as the Giants' frosh baseballers defeated Drake High, 3-2 in ten innings.

Wilson faced 40 batters, struck out 24, walked one and allowed just four hits and two unearned runs. He rounded out his day with two hits in four trips to the plate and scored a run.

Wilson is a brother of Doug Wilson, former Marin prep baseball star and now in professional baseball.

Mrs. May Wins At Peacock Tourney

Mrs. William May of the Indian Valley Golf Club in Novato fired a 93 yesterday to capture low gross honors in the women's guest day tournament at San Rafael's Peacock Gap club.

Mrs. Joseph Dickover was winner of a special hole-in-one contest.

Green Bay Trades Ringo To Eagles

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Green Bay's Paul Hornung, the penitent "Golden Boy," and fullback Jim Taylor will find a stranger up front this season when they try to regain status as the National Football League's top 1-2 rushing punch.

The Packers broke up the awesome offensive line molded by Coach Vince Lombardi in 1959 by sending center Jim Ringo, along with reserve fullback Earl Gros, to the Philadelphia Eagles Tuesday.

In exchange, the trade-happy Eagles, swinging their fourth major trade since March 11, gave up linebacker LeRoy Caffey and rights to their No. 1 selection in the NFL draft next December.

Ringo, Green Bay's seventh draft choice in 1953, was a key man in the deal although he will be 33 next Nov. 21. An all-NFL selection for the past seven years, Ringo was a key blocker as the Packers powered their way to Western Division titles in 1960, '61 and '62, winning the NFL championship the latter two years.

The Packers posted an 11-2-1 record last season and finished second to the Chicago Bears in the West. Ringo played his 10th straight season without missing a game, but some observers felt he had slowed.

MAY RETIRE

Ringo, a former Syracuse University standout who now lives near Easton, Pa., said he doesn't know whether he'll continue playing. He plans to talk things over with his wife, Lombardi and Philadelphia owner Jerry Wolman.

Ringo helped form a mighty forward wall which helped Hornung to scoring championships in 1959, '60 and '61, and Taylor to the scoring and ground-gaining titles in 1962.

The 24-year-old Gros, the Packers' No. 1 draft choice three years ago after starring at Louisiana State, had little chance to show his wares as understudy to Taylor. The 230-pound speedster carried only 77 times for 367 yards and four touchdowns in limited service for Green Bay.

New Big League Maturity Noted In Giants' Players, Management

CONNOLLY

As Hazel might say—the 1964 baseball season could be a duzie. Advance sales, reservations months in advance of high-priced seats, of late, have reached startling proportions. Spot sales, so we are told, are twice as high as they have ever been before.

The pennant fever occasioned by the spectacular play of the S.F. Giants in the spring, and to date, seems to have gripped the entire sports-loving folks of all Northern California.

From an exacting baseball audience of six years ago, clamoring for a pennant, the "new breed of fan" for 1964 seems not to give a hoot nor a care about "how" the Giants win, just so long as they are aggressive and hustling.

IT IS a different type of patron who watches the ball games now as against those who came to see Bill Rigney in 1958.

"Rig" was saddled with a rabid former Coast League mob that enjoyed a good ball game even if the Giants lost it. After two years of Rigney he was slipped the walking potion because he fell short of the demands of exacting S.F. fans.

WHEN THOSE same 1962 Giants faded in 1963, Manager Dark's philosophy underwent a change.

His sights still remain high but he is not nearly as exacting nor quite as positive. He could be mellowing from a managerial sense of maturity or it could be caused by a frightening realization that he must relax or else put his managerial fate on the ice.

WHATEVER PROMPTED the change in Dark, and in his methods, he is being joined by his entire trope of players, all of whom show decided signs of maturing. Call it a new frontier, or a new deal or a new attitude, but whatever it is the ball players have it and in large gobs.

They take the attitude that if they win, the fans don't give a hootenanny if they play good, bad or indifferent baseball. It's the victory that brings home the bacon.

SOME OF the confidence and poise in players like Juan Marichal, Orlando Cepeda, Willie McCovey and Tom Haller got a big lift when pitchers Bob Shaw and Hendley and catcher Del Crandall joined the outfit. And a big load of confidence came with the signing of Cookie Lavagetto, coach.

He took over odd jobs that annoyed Dark, made the players see it his way. Outside of an occasional flip, Cookie has smartened up most of the Giant players and saved Manager Dark a lot of the beefs that are always pointed at a manager. The removal of this pressure and tension off skipper Dark is now reflected in team spirit and hustle and a desire on the part of ball players to be of mutual help to one another.

STAGE FRIGHT and panicky baseball, which characterized the S.F. Giants in their early S. F. escapades seem to have been dropped in the new scramble for solid major league standards. The Giant players individually and in groups even talk like major leaguers.

"We need a few breaks and we're getting them in a fine start," explains Manager Dark. "I'm sure my players are confident of themselves. The club morale is great and wih good fan backing I expect great things to happen in 1964.

"TWO ROOKIES who are starting off well as regulars have served their apprenticeship well and I think they're both ready. They can MAKE the Giants champions in 1964. I think they will."

Coming from the once conservative Dark, those words of praise indicate how firmly he believes in his ball club.

A RANDOM check of the Amercian League clubs in the recent spring training season convinces supporters of the Giants that the bay area fans are mighty fortunate to have the Giants here instead of one or another of American League clubs.

Consider, if you will, what would have happened in S. F. had the bay area inherited clubs like the Red Sox, Indians or Angels. In my mind the type of play and the type of players would have doused the hopes of Northern California fans and it would have been disastrous.

So as a kickoff salute to 1964 one has to doff his hat to the Giant "brass" for assembling an up and coming baseball aggregation.

Hub City Softball Team Splits Pair

Dave Shallenberger hurled a two-hit shutout and his teammates backed him with a 16-hit assault against three Valley Furniture pitchers to give Sohner Tree Service a 13-0 victory and a split in a softball doubleheader played in Santa Rosa Monday night.

The Treemen lost the nightcap, 9-6, when a last-inning rally fell short.

The games were the first for Sohner this year. The San Anselmo nine opens its home season at 8 p.m. Thursday at Albert Park against Santa Rosa Athletic Club.

In notching his first win as a Sohner pitcher, Shallenberger struck out 16, walked three, and allowed only one ball to be hit out of the infield. Both hits were infield singles.

After scoring once in the second, Sohner erupted for four runs in the third with Neil Scoggins' two-run triple and Jess Munyon's two-run homer highlighting the rally.

Valley Furniture turned some sloppy Sohner defensive play and Jay Leatherwood's wildness into a 9-6 verdict in the second game.

Group Offers Tickets For Dodger Game

Reserved seats for the Giant-Dodger game May 10 are still available through the Mount Zion Women's Auxiliary.

Benefit tickets, at $5 each, are for choice reserved seats, says Mrs. Myer Kahn, publicity chairman for the Auxiliary. They may be ordered from Mrs. Harold H. Rosenblum, Marin chairman, by calling her at ED 2-0988. Out-of-town fans may write for tickets to the Mount Zion Auxiliary, 1600 Divisadero St., San Francisco 15, or may call the Auxiliary any day between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. at FI 6-5053 or FI 6-5097.

Funds raised by the auxiliary through the baseball benefit will be used in a triple play against cancer — for the purchase of a Hyperbaric Chamber for the forthcoming Claire Zellerbach Saroni Memorial Tumor Institute of San Francisco; for continued support of a Cancer Chemotherapy Fellowship, and to help finance other auxiliary clinic projects.

Fruit Juice Stand Issue Unsqueezed

Marin County supervisors aren't sure yet where they will be able to buy a glass of lemonade or orange juice at the Marin Art and Garden Fair this summer.

The Soroptimist Club of Marin is fighting to run its fresh fruit juice stand at its old location, whereas the fair committee has designated a new location.

After an hour-and-a-half hearing yesterday, supervisors voted 4-to-1 that both sides should get together and arrive at a compromise location.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr explained that his dissenting vote was a vote of confidence in the fair committee.

Attorney Natalie J. Holly, president of the Soroptimist Club, argued that the club had been given a "dead end" location as compared to its former location which was convenient to the flow of traffic.

Mrs. Holly said the club would not make so much money at the new location, but Supervisor Byron E. Leydecker said he had an anonymous donor who would make up the difference to equal last year's receipts.

Later, Leydecker said that advocates of the old location pointed out to him that this was an election year and he was running for re-election.

"I don't happen to be the kind to flout principle," he commented.

James Goodale, chairman of the fair executive committee, said that all concessions were moved, not just the Soroptimist stand. He said it would be damaging to the appearance of the fair for the Soroptimists to return to their old location, but agreed that there were "two or three other areas" where the Soroptimist booth could be located.

The Soroptimists were backed in their appeal by Capt. John Anderson, president of Marin Parents of Hearing Handicapped Children; Henry Metten of San Anselmo, William Voorheis of San Rafael, and Aaron E. Rucker, first manager of the fair.

Rucker drew applause when he said the fruit juice stand "should not have to be sought out by thirsty . . . The plan should take this into consideration."

The supervisors, officially the fair board, urged Mrs. Holly and the fair committee to negotiate and report at 10:30 a.m. next Tuesday.

Not Enough Time? The Experts Manage

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Today we turn our attention to the harried woman who complains like most of society that there is not enough time these days to save time.

But it can be done. There is hope even for the confirmed procrastinators who spend more time working up to doing things than to doing them.

IF YOU WANT to squeeze a few more minutes out of each day, listen to how some of the experts manage or have managed.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith tries to start each day as early as possible, claiming she can get twice as much work done in the hours before 9 a.m. as after. Arthur Godfrey believes he gains 20 minutes each day simply by getting up when he wakes up.

Henry Ford II gains time by organizing it — writing down things to be done for as much as one month ahead. Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, former U.S. Treasurer, saves time by using a telephone headset which leaves her hands free for other chores while she waits or talks.

THE LATE Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's formula: Eliminate unnecessary slave-of-habit things that fritter away time. Stop doing what you must the difficult way. Teach yourself to do two or three things together.

Difficult as it is to believe an extra 15 minutes a day would enable one in a year to read the Bible twice, the complete works of Shakespeare once.

In short, nearly 90 hours saved for something you want to do like taking piano lessons or the adult education course in decorating.

Hardly any area has not been explored in the search of women to save time, say researchers. They mention the built-in time savers in meal preparation with frozen foods, new equipment. They cited the use of the automatic washer, the clothes dryer, the food freezer, the dishwasher.

THEN, THERE'S the advice from one magazine for women to put their schedules on a diet. It suggested that just as families have eliminated the 14 course meal, so the homemaker must stop dividing herself up for so many activities that she cannot contribute much to any. Once signed up for, say, the P-TA, symphony association and church bazaar, these are enough.

Flirty trio of the perennial popular shift in Rosewood's perky poplin of polyester and rayon. Bows, butterflies and polka dots add spice to the simple daily life of these three favorites. Matching bandanas complete the pretty picture.

Choir To Entertain At Banquet

"The Mother's Ministry—the Daughter's Direction" will be the theme of the second annual Women's Mission Society be held at Loma Verde Community Church in Ignacio at 7 p.m., May 15.

Their husbands and fathers will cook and serve the dinner, with Larry Griffin as head cook, assisted by the Rev. Gilbert Hall, Robert Parr and other men members of the church.

The Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. John Frederick accompanied by Mrs. Albert Richter, will provide music, according to program chairman, Mrs. Ben Jackson.

Chairman Mrs. Otto Littler will be assisted with the decorations by Mrs. Calvin Horn and Mrs. John Park. Mrs. Horn be mistress of ceremonies.

New officers for the 1964-65 year will be installed during the evening. Mrs. Norman Roderick will be installed as president and Mesdames D. E. Haddock, first vice president and program chairman; Phil Falconer, vice president in charge of missions; Rodman Luckin, vice president of Christian Service; Gilbert Hall, treasurer; Homer Ortmeyer, treasurer and Otto Littler, publicity.

Mrs. Phil Christman is co-chairman and reservations chairman.

DAVID WHITE

Drake Senior Recipient Of Scholarship

The Ladies Auxiliary of Marin Rod and Gun Club awarded David Phillip White, a senior at Sir Francis Drake High School, a $200 scholarship, it was announced by Mrs. Edgar Peterson, auxiliary president.

David is the son of Mrs. J. P. White of San Anselmo, and the late Mr. White.

David, who plans to major in fishery and wildlife management at the University of Minnesota this fall, will be a guest of the auxiliary on May 26 at the clubhouse, Pt. San Quentin.

Alumnae To Host Party

Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae members will entertain their husbands at their annual cocktail party Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bauer, 225 Mt. Shasta Drive, Lucas Valley.

Hosts and hostesses for the 5:30 to 8 p.m. party will include Messrs. and Mesdames William Spares of San Rafael, Roland E. Fenz of Lucas Valley and William McGregor of Marinwood.

Party proceeds will be used to purchase visual aid equipment for Marindale School in Terra Linda.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Kent Woodlands Home To Be Locale For Farewell Dinner

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Parties, large and small, are being given for the popular George Schirmers, of Kent Woodlands, who have sold their house and are moving to Park Lane Apartments on Nob Hill in San Francisco soon. Mr. and Mrs. H. Wallace Hickman of Kent Woodlands are giving a dinner Friday night for intimate friends of George and Lorraine Schirmer. The commute to San Francisco and the traffic jams have made travel across the bridge just too much for George.

However the Schirmers intend to visit friends here frequently and Lorraine says she will come back to Marin about once a week and she knows she is going to miss her beautiful garden and the swimming pool and the way of life in Marin. Eventually the Schirmers intend to have another home over here. Several welcome parties are being given for the Schirmers in San Francisco.

Mrs. Hickman has been busy these days, too, as her daughter, Patricia (Pat) a senior at University of California, is now studying for final examinations and active in events of Pi Beta Phi. There will be a luncheon at the Pi Phi chapter house on the UC campus before the awarding of degrees June 13. Pat, a speech major, will attend summer school at Berkeley.

THE FRANK SCHROEDERS of Corte Madera have returned from six months in St. Louis. For Mrs. Schroeder the trip was all pleasure, but her husband, a special representative of Pet Milk Company, there was business connected with the stay. Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder were reared in St. Louis and attended school there. She visited her sister, Mrs. W. H. Lindauer and her family. The Schroeders have many other relatives in St. Louis.

The Schroeders are going to Southern California to attend the wedding of their son, Donald Schroeder, and Mrs. Beverly Kent. The religious ceremony will be held in the chapel of Wilshire (Methodist) Church in Los Angeles. It will be followed by a reception at the Los Angeles home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Briggs. Also going south for the wedding are the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. George R. Saxton of Kent Woodlands, and daughter, Linda, who will fly south and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Postel of Ross. He will be best man. The bridegroom's parents and the Postels are driving south and will be there for the rehearsal dinner.

After the wedding the senior Schroeders will drive to Valley Center near Escondido to visit Mrs. Schroeder's sisters.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Tamalpais High School, College of Marin and University of California is on the staff of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. He and his bride will live in Hollywood.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES MARTELL are new residents of Peacock Gap. Their home is at 165 San Marino Drive. The Martells moved to Marin County from Granada Hills, Calif. He is assistant vice president of the Bank of California in San Francisco. The Martells have three children, Paula, who attends James B. Davidson Junior High School in San Rafael; James, a pupil at San Pedro School, and Laura, who is not of school age.

JACK LAWSON of Belvedere Island has returned from a trip to South America. Mrs. Lawson remained in Sao Paulo, Brazil, to visit her mother, Mrs. Lena Degener. Mrs. Lawson is also looking after her business interests. She designs and hand screens fabrics.

The Lawsons have a four-month-old son, Charles, who remained in Belvedere with friends while his parents were traveling.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT BAUER of Greenbrae entertained recently at a dinner party at Sabella's in honor of their son, Robert, who celebrated his thirteenth birthday.

MARIN was well represented when a shower was given recently in a San Francisco restaurant by friends of Edythe Brignardello of San Francisco, fiancee of Michael J. Mainini of Mill Valley. Among the guests were Michael's mother, Mrs. Mary Mainini of Mill Valley and his aunts, Mrs. Rose Bedecarrax and Mrs. Florence Martinoni of Sausalito and their daughters, Jean Bedecarrax and Carol Martinoni. Father of the future bridegroom was the late Angelo Mainini. The young man has a sister, Mrs. William Larbig, who lives with her husband and two children in Frankfort, Germany. The wedding will take place May 31 at St. Francis Church in San Francisco.

MARIN PANHELLENIC TO PRESENT PANEL DISCUSSION ON SATURDAY

A panel discussion on sorority and college life will be given Saturday at 10 a.m. at Adeline E. Kent School in Kentfield, presented by Marin Panhellenic for high school and college-age girls and their parents.

On the panel, which will meet in the multi-purpose room will be Mesdames Guy Gale, Marilyn Stuart, Edmond Eger and Miss Sandy Neubarth, with Mrs. John Fraser Jr. as moderator.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Installs

Mrs. H. Edward Cox was installed president of Gamma Omicron Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi last night at the home of Mrs. James Farris of San Rafael.

Other new officers are Mesdames Gene Rexrode, vice president; Donald Stutzman, recording secretary; Curtis Embry, corresponding secretary; Thomas Washington, treasurer; Norman Petersen, extension officer; Kenneth Marshall, civil defense; Donald Aspey and Washington, Inter-City Council representatives; and Mrs. Harry Bowman, alternate.

MRS. H. EDWARD COX

The new president served as secretary and vice president of her chapter in Columbus, Ohio before she came to Marin two years ago.

She is the wife of the president of the San Francisco-Oakland Mailer's Union and the mother of a two-year-old son, Christopher.

Pat Cox takes painting at the College of Marin in the evening and she also enjoys cooking and family activities. She will be among the models for the Inter-City Council's luncheon and style show on May 20.

Drill Team Will Perform At Alto Fair On Saturday

San Francisco has its Giants, Oakland its flower show and Mill Valley the Alto School Fair —all signs of spring, say the committee members.

Now in its seventh year, the fair staged by the Alto School Parent-Teacher Assn. will take place Saturday on the school grounds beginning at 12:30 p.m., with a performance of the Edna Maguire Girl's drill team.

Posters advertising the event have been made by students. Food booths, games of skill and gift merchandise booths will be manned by parents of Alto students. During the afternoon a jazz combo will play.

Dinner will be served at 4 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Oaka Roan.

Mrs. William Thomson, Alto P-TA president, has Mrs. G. R. McConnell assisting her as co-chairman. Committee heads are Mesdames J. S. Woodward, tickets; Accardi, merchandise booths; R. W. Silvert, arts and crafts; Jeanne Toncre, publicity and promotion; Stanyan Buckingham, games; Ross Akers, food; and Torc Bedayan, first aid. Mrs. McConnell will be cashier.

Special Square Dance

A special dance will be hosted by the Novato Squares Square Dance Club on Saturday. Jim Mork of Hayward will be the caller. The dance will be held in the Lynwood School, Novato, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

BEAUTY TIPS FROM ME TO YOU

By Dorothy Chapman

Many women in the first flush of early maturity add years to their appearance, simply by the subconscious use of gestures which not only make her appear older, but tend to promote the development of premature age-lines. Let's run down a list of some of these. How many are you guilty of? First, there's spectacle-frame nibbling. This will make you look like grandmother. Plucking at the throat, besides being awkward, stimulates the growth of double chins. Keep your hands off your face! Nothing is more unattractive than the face-fingerer. Puckering the mouth will guarantee you a prune-like look, and soon, too; and if you want to accelerate sagging facial muscles, develop the habit of pulling at your lower lip.

Now is the time to streamline your figure—vacation time is almost here.

Construction Women Plan Organiztaion Meet May 27

An organizational meeting to form a local chapter of Women in Construction will be held May 27 at 7:30 p.m. by Barbara J. Stamper at her home, 9A Warner Court, San Rafael. A member of the San Francisco chapter will attend to answer questions and to help organize the local group.

Women in Construction was organized in 1953 in Fort Worth, Texas. There are now 4,000 women throughout the United States who belong to this organization. Any woman who is actively employed in the architectural, general construction contractors, sub-contractors, material supplying, construction engineering or construction news service phases of the construction business may belong, Miss Stamper said.

Women who belong have an occasion for fellowship with other members, who have similar interests, an opportunity to keep abreast of the developments and research in the industry through chapter programs.

Library Workers To Be Honored At A P-TA Luncheon

Richardson Bay School Library Volunteers from Sausalito and Mill Valley will meet Thursday for coffee at the Sausalito home of Mrs. Andrew Kozak, Richardson Bay P-TA president.

Mrs. Dorothy Tolpegin, Sausalito district librarian, and Mrs. Estelle Sutherlin, assistant librarian at Richardson Bay, will thank the volunteers.

Since the opening of school in September the two school libraries have been kept open Tuesdays through Fridays during the lunch hours.

Participating from Mill Valley are Mesdames Eugene McGeorge, John B. Wyand, Hughes Call, Clement Hurd, Evans Valens, Joseph Moore, John V. Buckley and Melie J. Coutlee. Mrs. Fred Madigan assists in the Manzanita School.

Atlanta Housewives Trying To Accelerate Integration

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Plunging in where businessmen, officeholders and husbands sometimes fear to tread, several hundred women are trying to accelerate acceptance of integration in Atlanta.

One of their projects is "dining out" at desegregated restaurants.

THEY ALSO are working on removing remaining racial barriers in other major areas such as health, employment, education and housing.

Organized about two months ago, the women call themselves Partners For Progress. "Membership" merely means an expression of support for their goals; there are no dues.

Working through numerous women's groups, PFP organisers believe there is a large uncommitted reservoir of good will among white Atlantans and that this can be tapped to bring peaceful integration.

MOST OF the PFP leaders are white women representing major civic, religious and political forces in the city. Some are socialites.

They are wives of prominent businessmen and community and professional leaders.

PFP plunged into public view through a newspaper ad which included a coupon to be clipped and returned by persons agreeing with the group's goals.

Then the women set up two letter-writing campaigns. One was aimed at supporting desegregated restaurants and hotels; the other urged desegregation of the City-County Hospital.

TWO WEEKS after the letter-writing campaign, the hospital desegregated its emergency room.

Letters to the "open" restaurants and hotels pledge support and patronage by PFP members, their husbands, friends and members of about two dozen cooperating organizations.

GROUPS OF WOMEN visit restaurants in their "dine-out" program. A list of "open" places of public accommodation is kept.

Patricia Alice Brown Is Bride

St. Anselm's Church in Ross was the setting on Saturday for the wedding of Patricia Alice Brown and Ronald Anthony Marinelly.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Charles H. Brown of San Anselmo, the bride wore a white sheath gown of taffeta accented with Alencon lace and seed pearls.

Preceding the bride to the altar in sheaths of aqua linen were Mrs. Barry Heifitz of San Anselmo as matron of honor and Mrs. David C. Brown of San Jose, bridesmaid.

Ralph Marinelly Jr. of Oakland was best man for his brother and ushering guests to their seats was Edward Franco also of Oakland.

The bride was graduated from Marin schools. Harry E. Brown of San Anselmo and David Brown of San Jose are her brothers. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Harry Brown of San Anselmo and the late Mr. Brown and the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. J. O'Brien.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Ralph Marinelly of Oakland and the late Mr. Marinelly, was graduated from Oakland City High School and attended Oakland City College. He owns a men's clothing shop in Santa Cruz.

Dissatisfied with your present garden setup? Too much "green" not enough color. Deer devouring roses. Overcome "juniperitis", foliage poisonous to deer, grow the aristocrats. Discard hearsay and tradition concerning shade, cultural drawbacks, high cost. Varieties now available blooming from late Sept. to June, small to specimen sizes, competing with other genus of less intrinsic value, less maintenance, higher longevity. Buy from reliable sources, selecting stock at random from most "leads," or "sales" gimmicks can be most disappointing. The very best is always the cheapest. Results are from our 15 years experience.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, May 6, the 127th day of 1964 with 239 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1935, the Works Progress Administration was created to provide work for the unemployed through a series of projects supported by federal funds.

In 1937, the German dirigible Hindenburg exploded at Lakehurst, N.J. Thirty-six passengers died in the disaster.

A thought for the day — British author Oliver Goldsmith said: "Conscience is a coward, and those faults it has not strength enough to prevent, it seldom has justice enough to accuse."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; boldface type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Learn To Avoid Opening Up Short Suit At Notrump

A Wet Paint sign has an irresistible appeal to most of us, but we can usually stay at a respectful distance from fire, explosives, and buzz-saws.

WEST DID BEST

West did his best to confuse declarer by playing the jack of clubs, but South was not deceived. He returned to his hand to lead another club toward dummy.

The idea was good, but the execution was faulty. South returned to his hand by leading a low spade to the queen. Touching a suit in which he held so few cards was just asking for trouble.

East played the ten of spades to show his interest in the suit, and West had little trouble in reading the signal.

GREAT FALL

When South led a second club, West rose with the ace of clubs and returned the jack of spades.

It was the biggest fall since Humpty Dumpty. The jack, king and ace of spades fell together, and South could get only eight tricks.

As soon as South tried to develop a second heart trick, West took the ace of hearts and led his last spade.

DIAMOND ACE

South should have reached his hand by way of the ace of diamonds instead of the queen of spades.

The opponents might take two diamonds, a club, and a heart, but they could not defeat the contract.

When the opponents fail to attack their best suit, don't open it up for them. In general, work on your long suits, and let the opponents find your short suits without any help from you.

QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♥ J 7 2
♦ A J 10 4
♣ Q 7 6 3

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one diamond.

Show a new suit rather than raise a minor suit. It may be all partner needs to go on in notrump.

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ K 5
♥ Q 10 4
♦ J 5 2
♣ K Q 8 6 2

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs.

You will raise hearts next, thus, showing a hand too strong for a single raise but not strong enough for a double raise.

QUESTION

A Bit of Shangri-La or A Junior Estate

CALL IT WHAT YOU WILL but be warned that you'll become enamored on first sight with this extraordinary offering! Let's see: We have 7 rooms — 3 or 4 bedrooms — family room — separate dining room — and brkfst. nook. A beautiful living room contains an enormous stone fireplace reaching from floor to ceiling — sliding doors open on to a heavenly garden. On an upper level we have a conservatory with fireplace — a guest house, needs some finishing touches, but is all wired and usable as is. 2-car separate garage. ALL THIS AND HEAVEN TOO, FOR ONLY $22,500. Terms, of course! We have the key!

Yoo! Hoo! Handyman!

COME SEE THIS LITTLE "GEM"! Okeh, we'll eliminate the "gem" part, but certainly it is worth the price of $4,500. Consists of a large unfinished patio-cottage. On perfectly lovely parcel, commanding a magnificent view! $1,000 down, possibly less will take it!

No. 783 Apr. 29, May 6, 13, 20, 1964

RESOLUTION NO. 3033
RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO PROVIDE FOR ADDITIONAL FACILITIES FOR OFF STREET PARKING IN SAN RAFAEL PARKING DISTRICT NO. 1 UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF CHARTER ORDINANCES NO. 644 AND 655 OF THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL, AND THE PROVISIONS OF THE PARKING DISTRICT LAW OF 1951 IN THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL MAKING PRELIMINARY DETERMINATION THAT THE PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY REQUIRE THE CONSTRUCTION OF SAID ADDITIONAL FACILITIES, DESCRIBING THE ADDITIONAL FACILITIES AND SETTING A TIME AND PLACE OF HEARING.

RESOLVED, that it is the intention of the City Council of the City of San Rafael to provide for additional facilities for off street parking under the provisions of Charter Ordinances No. 644 and 655 of the City of San Rafael and the provisions of the Parking District Law of 1951 of the State of California, and to this end said City Council does hereby further resolve and determine:

A. The name of said parking district is "Parking District No. 1 of the City of San Rafael".

B. The boundaries of the district are as shown and delineated upon that certain map which is on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael and which is entitled "Map Showing Proposed Boundaries of Parking District No. 1, San Rafael, Marin County, California", which said map is hereby referred to and by this reference made a part hereof.

The boundaries of said district are also described as follows:

BEGINNING at the point of intersection of the northerly line of Fifth Avenue with the Westerly boundary line of the lands described in Deed to L. L. Stanley, et al, recorded in Liber 41 of Official Records at page 329; said point being distant along the northerly line of Fifth Avenue, a distance of 341.40 feet Westerly from its intersection with the westerly line of "C" Street; running thence from said point of beginning, following the line of the lands described in said deed to Stanley North 5° 28' East 178.73 feet and South 86° East 125.68 feet to the northeasterly corner of said lands conveyed to Stanley; said point being the northwesterly corner of the lands described in Deed to Leo L. Stanley recorded in Liber 342 of Official Records at page 405; running thence along the northerly line of the lands described in the last named Deed to Stanley South 86° East 70.00 feet to the northwesterly corner of the lands described in Deed to Frank H. Howard, et ux, recorded in Liber 514 of Official Records at page 311; running thence along the northerly line of said lands conveyed to Howard South 86° East 28.00 feet and South 84° East 122.00 feet to the westerly line of "C" Street; running thence southeasterly in a direct line to a point on the easterly line of "C" Street at the northwesterly corner of the lands described in Deed to Harry Albert recorded in Liber 847 of Official Records at page 474; thence easterly parallel with the northerly line of Fifth Avenue 100.00 feet; thence northerly at right angles 3.50 inches; thence easterly at right angles 20 feet and 8.50 inches; thence northerly at right angles 51.60 feet; thence easterly at right angles 30 feet; thence southerly at right angles 51 feet, more or less, to a point which is distant 100 feet southerly from the southerly line of Mission Avenue, measured at right angles thereto; thence easterly parallel with the southerly line of Mission Avenue and distant 100 feet southerly therefrom, a distance of 148.00 feet, more or less, to the westerly line of "B" Street; running thence northeasterly in a direct line to a point on the easterly line of "B" Street at its intersection with the northerly line of the lands described in Deed to Elks Hall Association of San Rafael, recorded in Liber 132 of Deeds at page 148; running thence easterly along the last named line 115 feet, more or less, to the northwesterly corner of the lands described in Deed to San Rafael Lodge 1108, B.P.O.E., recorded in Liber 190 of Official Records at page 432; running thence easterly along the northerly line of the last named lands 140 feet, more or less, to the northeasterly corner thereof; running thence North 30° 45' East 40 feet, more or less, to the Westerly termination of the call "North 83° 15' West 108 feet" as set forth in Deed to the Roman Catholic Welfare Corporation of San Francisco recorded in Liber 792 of Official Records at page 133; running thence South 83° 15' East 108 feet; running thence Southeasterly in a direct line to the northwesterly corner of the lands described in Deed to Doris L. Eden, et al, recorded in Liber 681 of Official Records at page 124; running thence easterly along the northerly line of said lands conveyed to Eden 48.40 feet to the northeasterly corner thereof; running thence Southerly 17.30 feet to the northwesterly corner of the lands described in Deed to Albert P. Tognoli recorded in Liber 495 of Official Records at page 436; running thence easterly and southeasterly following the exterior boundary lines of said lands conveyed to Tognoli to the northwesterly line of Court Street; running thence easterly in a direct line to a point on the southeasterly line of Court Street at the northwesterly corner of the lands described in Deed to Rebecca Lobree Herzog recorded in Liber 134 of Deeds at page 1; running thence easterly in a direct line 336.67 feet to a point in the westerly line of Nye Street at a point distant thereon 140.30 feet northerly from its intersection with the northerly line of Fifth Avenue; running thence easterly in a direct line to a point on the easterly line of Nye Street distant thereon 100 feet northerly from its intersection with the northerly line of Fifth Avenue; running thence easterly and parallel with the northerly line of Fifth Avenue a distance of 90 feet; running thence northerly, parallel with the easterly line of Nye Street 49 feet to the Southerly line of Block 37 as shown upon "Plat of the Townsite of San Rafael", running thence easterly along the southerly line of said Block 37 to its intersection with the westerly line of the Alley shown upon "Plat of the Townsite of San Rafael" now known as Garden Lane; running thence southeasterly in a direct line to a point on the easterly line of Garden Lane at its intersection with the southerly boundary line of the lands firstly described in Deed to Mary J. Walsh recorded in Liber 831 of Official Records at page 483; running thence easterly along the southerly boundary line of said lands conveyed to Walsh and its direct extension easterly to a point in the center line of Lincoln Avenue; running thence southerly along the center line of Lincoln Avenue and its direct extension southerly to a point in a line drawn 100 feet southerly from the southerly line of Second Street, measured at right angles thereto; running thence westerly, parallel to the southerly line of Second Street, and distant 100 feet southerly therefrom, to a point which is 80 feet easterly from the easterly line of "A" Street extended southerly; running thence northerly parallel with the easterly line of "A" Street extended southerly 36.25 feet to the southeasterly corner of the lands described in Deed to Eric Moeller, et ux, recorded in Liber 935 of Official Records at page 74; running thence westerly and parallel with the southerly line of Second Street 80.00 feet to the easterly line of "A" Street extended southerly; running thence southwesterly in a direct line to a point on the Westerly line of "A" Street extended southerly distant thereon 130 feet southerly from the southerly line of Second Street; running thence westerly parallel with the southerly line of Second Street and distant 130 feet southerly therefrom, a distance of 79.16 feet; running thence westerly in a direct line to a point on the easterly line of "B" Street distant thereon 133 feet southerly from its intersection with the southerly line of Second Street; running thence westerly in a direct line to a point on the westerly line of "B" Street, distant thereon 140 feet southerly from its intersection with the southerly line of Second Street; running thence westerly and parallel with the southerly line of Second Street 147.00 feet; running thence northerly and parallel with the westerly line of "B" Street 47.00 feet; running thence westerly, parallel with and distant 100 feet southerly from the southerly line of Second Street, measured at right angles therefrom, to a point in the center line of "C" Street; running thence northerly along the center line of "C" Street to the center line of Third Street; running thence westerly along the center line of Third Street to the center line of "D" Street; running thence northerly along the center line of "D" Street to the center line of Fifth Avenue; running thence northwesterly in a direct line to the point of beginning.

C. Determination is made that said facilities shall be constructed within the boundaries of said hereinabove described Parking District No. 1 of the City of San Rafael and that there shall be no change in the boundaries of said district.

D. The parcels of real property upon which it is proposed that improvements to the parking facilities shall be constructed are described as follows:

"C" Street

BEGINNING at the point of intersection of the easterly line of "C" Street and the southerly line of Fifth Avenue; running thence along the said southerly line of Fifth Avenue 103.0 feet to the northwesterly corner of the parcel of land conveyed to the San Rafael School District by deed recorded in Liber 131 of Deeds at page 312; running thence southerly along the westerly line of said parcel and its extension southerly 156.833 feet, to the southeasterly corner of the parcel of land conveyed to the City of San Rafael by deed recorded April 30th, 1958 in Book 1186 of Official Records, page 234; running thence westerly along the southerly line of said parcel 103.0 feet to the easterly line of "C" Street, thence northerly along said street line 156.833 feet to the point of beginning.

Lootens & 3rd Street

THAT portion of Block 30 as said Block is shown on the Plat of the San Rafael Townsite Map, recorded October 14, 1873 on Rack 1, Pull 4, Marin County Records, described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point on the northerly line of Third Street; distant thereon westerly 52.37' from its intersection with the westerly line of Lootens Place; running thence westerly along said Third Street line 231.23 feet; thence at right angles northerly 150.0 feet, more or less, to the southerly line of an alley, thence at right angles easterly 100.0 feet, thence at right angles southerly 10.0 feet, thence easterly along said alley line 175.0 feet to a point on the westerly line of Lootens Place, distant thereon 157.0 feet southerly from the intersection of said westerly line of Lootens Place with the southerly line of Fourth Street before widening; running thence southerly along the said line of Lootens Place 40.0 feet; thence westerly and parallel with the aforementioned alley line 52.37 feet; running thence southerly and parallel with the westerly line of Lootens Place 103.14 feet to the point of beginning.

E. It is determined that the additional improvements which it is proposed to make to the above described lots, pieces or parcels of land for the purpose of making said lots, pieces or parcels of land such that they will provide additional off-street parking facilities are as follows:

a. The construction of a structure upon each of the parcels of land hereinabove described which shall provide an overhead area of approximately the same dimensions as the lots upon which said structures are erected, to provide for off-street parking thereon.

b. The installation on said structures of additional markings, parking meters and all other facilities deemed reasonably necessary for draining, lighting and otherwise making the additional facilities suitable and available for use for off-street parking of motor vehicles.

F. The estimate of the cost of said additional facilities and of the incidental expenses of the proceedings for the issuance of bonds to provide for the cost thereof is the sum of $391,400. The estimate of the expenses of operating said additional facilities consists of the sum of $3,100.00 per annum. The amount of the annual revenues which can be expected to be derived from the operation of the proposed additional facilities is the sum of $8,200.00 per annum. The amount of revenue which it is estimated will be derived from the operation of the parking meters upon all of the streets and public ways within the boundaries of Parking District No. 1 is the sum of $52,000.00 per annum. The assessed value of all of the real property in San Rafael Parking District No. 1 (including improvements thereon) as shown on the last equalized City of San Rafael Assessment Roll is the sum of $5,376,253.00. Said figure of assessed valuation of all of the real property in the said district is exclusive of the assessed value of the lots, pieces or parcels of land which are used for off-street vehicle parking and in the ownership of the City of San Rafael. The estimated cost of operating and maintaining parking meters upon the streets within the boundaries of Parking District No. 1 is the sum of $9,600.00 per annum. All of said cost estimates, expenses and estimated revenues and assessed valuations are in accordance with the report of the City Engineer of the City of San Rafael, filed with the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael on the 17th day of February, 1964, and which said report is hereby referred to for all particulars and details with reference to said items of estimates.

G. The amount which is to be contributed by the City of San Rafael as proposed by Resolution of Preliminary Determination No. 2970 passed by the City Council of the City of San Rafael on the 3rd day of February, 1964, and as proposed by this Resolution, consists of approximately $141,400.00. Said $141,400.00 shall be contributed from surplus revenues accumulated from the operation of parking facilities heretofore established in Parking District No. 1 in the City of San Rafael, and from parking meters.

H. It is further determined that all of the gross revenues of the off-street parking facilities heretofore established in Parking District No. 1 and of the additional off-street parking facilities hereinabove described and proposed to be constructed, and all of the gross revenues from parking meters now or hereafter installed and maintained on any and all public streets and ways within the district, shall be pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds of Parking District No. 1 now outstanding and additional bonds provided to be issued under this Resolution, all of which bonds shall be equally secured, as provided in Resolution No. 2065 adopted by the City Council of the City of San Rafael on March 17, 1958.

I. The contribution provided to be made by the City of San Rafael in Paragraph G. of this Resolution will be used by the City Council toward the cost and expense of said additional facilities, toward the payment of incidental expenses of the proceedings, and for the establishment of a reserve fund for the payment of the additional bonds which may be issued pursuant to these proceedings and the interest thereon, as the City Council of the City of San Rafael shall determine at the time of the determination to issue bonds.

J. The City Council of the City of San Rafael hereby determines that parking meters shall be installed and maintained, or shall continue to be maintained, upon all of the public ways or streets within the boundaries of Parking District No. 1 so long as any of the additional bonds which may be issued pursuant to these proceedings are outstanding, which shall not be more than thirty-five (35) years from the date of said bonds. The City Council also determines that fees or charges will be collected for the use of the additional facilities herein proposed to be constructed in said Parking District No. 1, by means of parking meters or by other suitable means, in amounts sufficient, together with other revenues available therefor, to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on said additional bonds and the bonds of said district now outstanding.

K. It is hereby estimated that the amount of the bonds proposed to be issued is the sum of $250,000.00; that the maximum number of years the bonds are to run shall not exceed thirty-five (35) years from the date of the bonds, and that the rate of interest upon the bonds shall not be in excess of six per cent (6%) per annum.

L. The limit as to the rate of ad valorem assessments which may be levied upon all taxable real property within the district is hereby set at 75c on each $100 of assessed valuation of all taxable real property in the district in any one year for all purposes permitted by the provisions of Charter Ordinances No. 644 and 655 and the provisions of the Parking District Law of 1951. Said limit as to the rate of ad valorem assessment shall continue throughout the period of the Series B bonds to be issued pursuant to this resolution and subsequent proceedings taken leading to their issuance.

M. The public ways within the district upon which the City of San Rafael has proposed by its Resolution of Preliminary Determination No. 1742 to install and maintain and contiune to maintain parking meters, the gross revenues from which will be allocated and pledged to the payment of principal and interest upon the bonds, consist of all of the public streets or ways within the boundaries of the district as shown upon the map of the district hereinabove referred to; said parking meters shall be maintained as long as any bonds or interest thereon issued in these proceedings shall remain unpaid.

N. Monday, the 15th day of June, 1964, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. of said day, and the meeting place of the City Council of the City of San Rafael, in the City Hall, San Rafael, California, are hereby fixed as the time and place for a hearing upon the matters set forth in this resolution. Any person interested, and objecting to the construction of additional facilities in Parking District No. 1 at the locations hereinabove described, the issuance of bonds or any other proposal in this Resolution of Intention, may file a written protest with the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael at his office any time prior to said time fixed for the hearing. The City Clerk of the City of San Rafael is hereby directed to publish this Resolution of Intention twice in the INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL, a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the City of San Rafael, the first publication of which shall be at least thirty (30) days prior to the date herein fixed for hearing. The City Clerk shall also, not less than twenty-five (25) days prior to the date herein fixed for hearing, mail a copy of this Resolution of Intention, postage prepaid thereon, to each person to whom real property in the district is assessed, as shown on the last equalized assessment roll, at his address as shown upon the roll, and to each person, whether owner in fee or having a lien upon or legal or equitable interest in any real property within the district, whose name and address and a designation of the real property in which he is interested is on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Reference is hereby made to the report of the City Engineer of the City of San Rafael, which said report was filed in the office of the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael on the 17th day of February, 1964. Said report was filed in accordance with the requirements of Resolution No. 2970 of the City Council of the City of San Rafael, passed on the 3rd day of February, 1964, and said report complies with the requirements of said resolution.

O. Preliminary determination is hereby made that the public convenience and necessity require the improvement described in the above Resolution of Intention.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Monday, the 15th day of June 1964, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. of said day, at the meeting place of the City Council of the City of San Rafael, located in the City Hall, San Rafael, California, is hereby fixed as the time and place when and where any and all persons interested who have filed an objection or who object may appear and show cause why the City Council should not find and determine that the public convenience and necessity require the construction of additional facilities to be made in said Parking District No. 1, without compliance with the Special Assessment Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931.

The City Clerk is directed to give notice of the time and place of said hearing as described in Paragraph N. of this Resolution for hearing upon the Resolution of Intention.

* * *

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing Resolution was duly and regularly adopted by the City Council of the City of San Rafael, Marin County, California, at a regular meeting thereof, held on the 27th day of April, 1964, by the following vote, to wit:

AYES: Councilmen: Baar, Jensen, and Mayor McInnis
NOES: Councilmen: None

NOTICE INVITING SEALED BIDS

IN THE MATTER OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF FACILITIES FOR PARKING DISTRICT NO. 1 IN THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL, COUNTY OF MARIN, CALIFORNIA.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Parking District Law of 1951 and our charter ordinances No. 644 and 655 of the City of San Rafael and Resolution No. 3034 of the City Council of the City of San Rafael, said City Council hereby invites sealed bids and proposals for the work and improvement of constructing additional facilities in Parking District No. 1 of the City of San Rafael. The additional facilities are described in Resolution of Intention No. 3033 in the above entitled matter of the said City Council of the City of San Rafael adopted on the 27th day of April, 1964, and the plans and specifications adopted by the City Council of the City of San Rafael for said work and improvement on the 27th day of April, 1964. The Resolution of Intention and the plans and specifications and the detailed drawings accompanying said plans and specifications are hereby referred to for all particulars with relation to the facilities to be constructed.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the contractor shall, in the performance of the said work, pay the scale of wages heretofore adopted by the City Council of the City of San Rafael and set forth in the plans and specifications on file herein.

The contractor shall, in the performance of the work and improvements, conform to the Labor Code of the State of California and other laws of the State of California applicable thereto, with the exception only of such variations as may be required under the special statutes pursuant to which proceedings hereunder are taken and which have not been superseded by the provisions of the Labor Code. Preference to labor shall be given only in the manner provided by law. Veterans and resident local labor shall be given preference by the contractor whenever possible, if skill and working ability permit without increasing the ultimate cost of the work and improvements to the City of San Rafael.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that payments will be made in cash by said City of San Rafael from the proceeds of bonds which are to be issued in said Parking District No. 1 and from cash contribution toward the cost thereof made by the City of San Rafael. Progress payments and final payment will be made as provided for in the specifications.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a check payable to said City of San Rafael and certified by a responsible bank for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent (10%) of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and two sureties who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount and over and above all statutory exemptions or by a corporate surety bond in said amount satisfactory to the Supervisor of Public Works of the City of San Rafael.

The time fixed for receiving sealed proposals or bids for the doing of said work and making of said improvements herein ordered is the 1st day of June, 1964, in the office of the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael not later than 2:00 o'clock P.M. of said day. Said bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared by the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael at said time and place, and the results thereof reported to the City Council of the City of San Rafael at the next regular meeting thereof. The City of San Rafael reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or bids should it deem this necessary for the public good, and also the bid of any bidder who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the City of San Rafael.

Plan and specifications are available for inspection at the office of Whitlow, Hoffman & Albritton, Engineer of Work, 29 Mary Street, San Rafael, California, and may be had upon the deposit of the sum of $25.00 payable in cash or certified check, which said $25.00 is to be returned when plans and specifications are returned in good condition within 15 calendar days after the date bids are received.

DATED: April 27, 1964.

Easter Island Film Planned

A color film on Easter Island will be presented at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Olney Hall, College of Marin in Kentfield.

Explorer Geza de Rosner, who made the film, will narrate, telling of the island's legendary stone statues and the scientific controversy over their origin.

Sponsors are the Associated Students of the College of Marin and the San Francisco Explorers Club.

Two Belvedere Residents Seeking Permit For Docks

Two Belvedere residents are seeking permits to construct a house, docks, float and breakwater in Richardson Bay at Belvedere, the Army Corps of Engineers reported today.

Russell Rice of 31 Windward Road is seeking a permit to drive piling for the construction of a house and construction of a floating dock along the west shore of Belvedere Island.

Anyone objecting to the permits on navigational grounds should notify the Corps of Engineers district office, 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, within 29 days.

The first successful test of cable cars in San Francisco was made on Clay Street in August, 1873.

Concert Scheduled At Hall School

Choruses in the Larkspur-Corte Madera and Henry C. Hall schools will give a concert at the Henry C. Hall School auditorium May 14 under direction of music teacher Rosalind Wong.

Barbara Barkovich will be the announcer and Mrs. Toby Rein, the piano accompanist.

The first American gasoline automobile was built in 1893 by Charles and Frank Duryea. The concept of the car, however, is at least 450 years old, having been envisioned by Leonardo da Vinci.

STORYBOOK SOUPS are meant for such precious moments. These soups are inspired from fairy tale pages that have pleased little ones, generation after generation. Children love soup . . . but soup with a Humpty Dumpty smiling up at them can be pure rapture. Hard to make? No, in the average refrigerator you'll find the art work. With a sharp knife and a little imagination you can quickly create story book characters to float on the surface of your child's bowl of soup. Children love the world of fantasy, the land of never-never where skies are blue satin and clouds are fluffs of sweet whipped cream. Grown-ups become busy and lose contact with this pretty, pleasant dream-world but no one really loses the spark, it's just not quite so close to the surface. Mothers recapture it through their youngsters' games, books, and fun—through the delight they find in childish laughter, the earth's sweetest music.

Soups From Story Books

RAGGEDY ANN

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup
1 soup can water
Shredded carrot
2 or 3 black olives or 4 to 6 plump raisins
Pimiento
2 or 3 large, curved celery or green pepper slices

In saucepan, blend soup and water. Heat. For each serving, outline hairline and fill in hair with shredded carrot. Cut rounds from black olives or use plump raisins for eyes. Cut a triangle nose from pimiento. Form a smile with celery slice, ends curved upward. Gently place in each bowl of soup Makes 2 to 3 servings.

HUMPTY DUMPTY

1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed tomato soup
1 soup can water
1 to 2 hard-cooked eggs
Raisins
Pimiento
Slice American process cheese

In saucepan, blend soup and water. Heat. Ladle into shallow bowls. Cut egg or eggs lengthwise in half; remove yolks. Make eyes from bits of cut raisins, mouths from pimiento and bow ties from slice of cheese for bowls of soup. Carefully lay egg whites, cut side down, on soup surfaces. Refrigerate egg yolks to use later on as sandwich filling or to garnish soups or vegetables. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

GOOSIE GOOSIE GANDER

1 soup can water
2 or 3 slices of American process cheese
2 or 3 round carrot slices
2 or 3 raisins

In saucepan, combine soup and water. Heat. Cut profiles of gooseheads from cheese. Use carrot slices and raisins for eyes. Gently place on each bowl of soup. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

SLEEPING BEAUTY

1 soup can water
1 black olive
2 or 3 cherry tomatoes or 1 pimiento
6 or 9 thin green pepper strips, 2 to 3 inches long

In saucepan, blend soup and water. Heat. Cut slivers from black olive and place 2 on each soup surface, curved side down to show sleeping eyes. Make a cherry tomato or pimiento mouth and use 3 strips of green pepper for each serving to form hairline, one piece across top and one vertical piece on each side. Gently place top on each bowl of soup. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

PINOCCHIO

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed chicken with rice soup
1 soup can water
2 or 3 small carrots, peeled
4 to 6 stuffed olive slices
2 to 3 thin curved green pepper slices, about 1½ inches

In saucepan, combine soup and water. Heat. Cut pointed ends of carrots, about 3 inches long. Stand flat ends on bottom of soup bowls with pointed ends coming through soup surface. Make eyes of olive slices and mouths of green pepper slices, ends curved upward for his smile. Gently place on each bowl of soup. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

CHESHIRE CAT

1 can (11¼ ounces) condensed green pea soup
1 soup can water
1 slice American process cheese
2 or 3 raisins
12 to 18 carrot strips, about the size of paper matches
Pimiento

In saucepan, blend soup and water. Heat. For each serving, cut oval shaped eyes from the cheese; use a raisin for the nose, and place carrot whiskers under nose, allowing 3 strips for each side, slanted upward. Make triangular mouth from pimiento. Gently place on each bowl of soup. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

GINGERBREAD BOY

1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed tomato rice soup
1 soup can water
2 or 3 slices American process cheese
Raisins

In saucepan, blend soup and water. Heat. From cheese slices, cut outlines of gingerbread boys with paring knife or cookie cutter. Make eyes and buttons with bits of cut raisins. Gently place figures on surface of each bowl of soup. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Storage Adds To Texture Of Cake

We can't decide whether this interesting recipe produces a cake or a pudding. So at our house, where it is approved, we call it pudding-cake and offer it two ways.

Part of it is served as a cake, sliced as usual. When we serve the rest of it as a pudding, we heat the slices over hot water and pass a pudding sauce with them, or give them a topping of whipped cream.

Bake this dessert ahead because it needs about 12 hours storage before it is served. This stay improves its texure and flavor.

Its texture, by the way, is rather like the popular Scandinavian pudding made with fruit cocktail. Its out-of-the-way flavor comes from combining crushed pineapple with sweet cooking chocolate.

This dessert is an easy one to make. Dry ingredients are sifted into a bowl, then the other ingredients are added. A quick stir and it's ready to be baked.

PINEAPPLE CHOCOLATE PUDDING-CAKE

1 can (1 pound, 4 ounces) crushed pineapple
2 cups sifted flour
1 cup sugar
1½ teaspoons baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 package (4 ounces) sweet cooking chocolate, chopped
1 cup chopped pecans
½ cup chopped raisins
2 eggs, slightly beaten
⅓ cup butter or margarine, melted

Drain pineapple thoroughly; there will be a generous cupful. Reserve ¾ cup of the pineapple syrup.

Sift together the flour, sugar, baking soda, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg into a mixing bowl. Stir in the chocolate pecans and raisins. Add the slightly beaten eggs, drained pineapple, reserved ¾ cup pineapple syrup and the melted butter. Stir enough to moisten all the flour. Turn into the prepared tube pan.

Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour and 10 minutes. Place cake in pan on wire rack to cool for 15 minutes. Loosen edges and center with a spatula or small knife; turn out; remove paper. Turn right side up. Allow to stand on rack until cold. Cover tightly and store 12 hours before serving.

PICKLED CARROTS GIVE ZEST

Baked Fish Baked Potatoes
Spinach
Sweet and Spicy Carrots
Cheese and Crackers

SPICY CARROTS

8 large carrots
1 cup each sugar and cider vinegar
½ teaspoon salt
½ stick cinnamon
1 small bay leaf
18 whole cloves and 18 whole allspice

Pare carrots; cut in half crosswise and cut each half into 4 sticks. Boil carrots in a covered saucepan in 1 inch of boiling water just until tender-crisp, about 10 minutes; drain. Over low heat in a saucepan, stir together the sugar, vinegar and salt, until sugar dissolves. Tie spices in a double-thick square of cheesecloth and add; simmer 5 minutes. Turn drained carrots and hot syrup (with spice bag) into a shallow container; cover; cool; chill overnight. Remove spice bag. Serve carrots cold as a pickle. Store any leftover in the syrup in a covered jar in the refrigerator.

Quick Lenten Dish

Take some shrimp and a packaged sauce for a quick luncheon treat. Use packaged curry sauce with your own seasonings added. Make the sauce according to package directions. Arrange cooked, shelled and deveined fresh or frozen shrimp on toast. Pour hot sauce over shrimp and toast.

Creative Tools Are Scissors, Paints, Lathes, Wrenches

Redwood High's Arts Festival Slated May 16

Creations of Redwood students will be displayed at the school's Creative Arts Festival May 16 from noon to 8 p.m.

There will be a car show in the senior quad, where the boys with the wrenches will display their cars and at least one motorcycle. The car club bought an old California Highway Patrol motorcycle for $119. Members have broken it down and reconditioned it. The transmission is being rebuilt and the whole motorcycle rewired.

The car club is a very casual group according to their counsellors, Robert F. Flynn and Paul Bosque—"not structured, no officers. The boys take apart their motors and trade mufflers."

From Suzanne Matsen's sewing classes will come a different kind of creations. The girls will model their outfits themselves.

CYCLE BUG—Craig Lieber just can't keep his nose out of the transmission of motorcycle the Redwood High School Car Club is reconditioning and will exhibit at the school's Creative Arts Festival on May 16.

There will also be a photographic display by the school's cameramen, renderings from the architectural drawing class, and galleys from the

Awards will be presented to the students entering the festival in almost all categories. Some of the creations will be for sale with proceeds going to the creators.

In the Little Theater, entertainment is scheduled on a hour-to-hour basis with prizes for the performing artists. Leading off at 1 p.m. will be an oratory contest, followed by a vocal music contest, then the fashion show at 3 p.m.

A string quartet, woodwind quintet, and brass sextet are among the entries for an instrumental music contest at 4 p.m. Drama students will present a scene from Tennessee Williams' play, "The Glass Menagerie," at 5 o'clock, preceding a concert by the Redwood Stage Band, which plays jazz in the Count Basie style of the late '40s. Presentation of awards will be at 7 p.m.

Free baby sitting will be provided by the homemaking class in Rooms 116 and 118. The Redwood Parent-Teacher Assn. is handling hot dog and cake sales.

Proceeds from the festival will be used to pay for the annual scholarship banquet.

Prison Assault Trial Starts

Trial of Lawrence Scott Garrett, San Quentin Prison inmate indicted for assault with a deadly weapon in the 1963 Christmas Day stabbing of another prisoner, started in Marin Superior Court yesterday.

Garrett is acting as his own counsel. He allegedly used a 13-inch-long rod with filed point to stab Thomas R. Counts, 33, in the back while the two were in the upper recreation yard.

Counts testifed before Marin County Grand Jury that the stabbing followed an argument over a debt to Counts by Garrett of six cartons of cigarettes. Counts also was a prosecution witness yesterday and was cross-examined by his alleged assailant, Garrett.

Watch your family enjoy the crust! Johnston's Pies bake up so high and proud and golden brown. The crust is fork-tender, flaky, delicate and light. That's because Johnston's pie crust is "chill-blended" – a secret that's shared by all good pastry cooks.

See how they go for that tempting filling! Johnston's Pies are King-Size – a full 9" across. Plump-full of choicest pie fruit, so crust and fruit and juice are in just the right proportion. The fruit is sweetened just right. No congealed lumps of starchy fillers.

APPLE • APRICOT • BLACKBERRY • BLUEBERRY • BOYSENBERRY • CHERRY CUSTARD • DUTCH APPLE • PEACH • PINEAPPLE • STRAWBERRY-RHUBARB

Go to your grocer's and pick out your favorite Johnston's Pie. Pay for it. Cut the name Johnston's from the front of the package and send it to Johnston's Pie Company, 1377 East 41st St., Los Angeles, California. Be sure to send your name, address, and the exact retail price you paid for your pie along with the cut-out name Johnston's from the pie package. Johnston's will immediately refund your money. This is the best way Johnston's can prove to you that they make your family's favorite pie better'n anybody else in the pie business. You'll be proud to serve Johnston's Pies to your guests, too! For over thirty-seven years we've been making pies that are famous for tasting "not just good...but wonderful!"

May In Marvelous Marin Off To Rousing Start

Can there be anyone in our county who is yet unaware that it is "May in Marin?"

We don't see how it could be possible except perhaps for the weatherman who started us off with an unseasonal (but not unwelcome) shower.

"Long hair" music lovers? The San Francisco Symphony played a concert at Forest Meadows.

The director of the National Park Service, George B. Hartzog, came to town to address the May in Marin kick-off lunch.

Almost overlooked in the confusion of events was the traditional May festival at Adeline E. Kent School, Kentfield, which has been held annually since the mind of man runneth not to the contrary.

And there are still four more weekends remaining in May.

If the success which the initial events met is any indication, May in Marin will wind up as Marin's most successful undertaking in many a moon.

Tranquilizers Have A Birthday

Ten years ago the first tranquilizer was placed on the market. They have since been developed into an almost bewildering variety of pills.

Although tranquilizers have helped to empty our mental institutions, probably their greatest boon has been to ordinary people who are beginning to crack under the pressures of modern life. It is interesting to note that "trankis" are widely used in Japan where there are similar pressures of a highly complex industrial society.

According to our druggist, tranquilizer sales are quite high in some of Marin's finest wooded districts. This rather shatters the cherished belief that living close to Nature is good for the soul.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Taxpayer May Be Next To Feel Bite Of Jobless Insurance Cost

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Probability that the "community" will be asked to participate in the California unemployment insurance program, now supported solely by employers, loomed today as the word came down that an Assembly committee is studying this proposal, perhaps to submit it to the 1965 regular legislative session.

Assemblyman Jerome R. Waldie (D-Contra Costa) outlined the idea in a speech made to the unemployment committee of the California Manufacturers Assn., held at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Monica.

Waldie has long been a student of the unemployment compensation program. He is majority floor leader and a member of the finance and insurance committee, which handles legislation affecting the insurance program.

HE DECLARED he does not think it is sound to require employers to pay the cost of benefits for all types of unemployment, mentioning among others, seasonal unemployment, and those types of unemployment caused by the inroads of automation and other technologies into the labor force of the state.

Normal employment, he said, which causes employees to be laid off because there is no work to do, is properly the obligation of the employer, but that type of unemployment which is not a hazard, but an absolute certainty, constitutes an over-all responsibility, as it raises a real problem for the rest of the community.

REGARDING AUTOMATION, he declared:

"The problem of unemployment as the result of automation and technological change will only be ameliorated, not solved, by longer years for education, and earlier years for retirement. The question is, who should accept the responsibility for unemployment arising from automation?"

At the present time, he pointed out the unemployment fund, contributed by employers to meet the normal hazards, is being loaded with burdens which do not properly belong to the fund.

The assemblyman said the state cannot safely hitch extension of benefits, re-training benefits, coverage of agricultural workers, and other excluded groups, to the fund.

NEEDLESS TO SAY, there will be a lot of discussion concerning this idea, if it is ever proposed to the Legislature. "Community participation" will be interpreted by some factions concerned in financing the unemployed to mean support from the state's general fund. Already, this fund is overburdened with heavy drains for all kinds of support in a wide variety of fields, including general welfare.

Obviously, further demands on the general fund can mean only increases in general taxes, which business as a whole is bound to dislike. But, business may be faced with the choice of increases in general taxes for unemployment, or financing the program on its own, which naturally would mean increases in the unemployment tax.

This puts employers between the devil and the deep, if the philosophy of state care for everyone out of work, no matter what the cause, prevails in the California Legislature.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Mayor Don O'Neil of Corte Madera said at a candidates' night that a 15 million dollar subdivision of 700 to 1,000 homes and a yacht harbor might be started soon on land east of the Marina Village development.

Committees representing Novato Community, Inc., and the Novato Improvement Club met and decided to recommend merging the groups.

20 YEARS AGO

The Marin County Planning Commission set for April 12 a hearing on an application by William E. Fassett and others for a use permit to set up the Golden Gate Farm for 20 horses at Waldo, west of highway 101 in Marin City.

Official's Opinion On Fluorides Hit

Editor, Independent-Journal:

At the April 28 meeting of the board of supervisors, the incumbent supervisor of District 1 (Mr. Leydecker) made a statement in regard to the fluoridation of water supplies that really shocked this voter. He said, in effect, that any person "with any degree of intellect and intelligence, who has studied the 'scientific' advantages of the program, will support it (fluoridation)."

Since the registered voters in the district which he represents have—not once, but twice — voted against the fluordation of their water, they must, in Mr. Leydecker's estimation, have little or no intelligence and/or intellect. . . .

'Action REALITY' Might Be Better

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Frank Farrara's article on the front page of your May 1 edition, in which he describes the acceptance of "Civil Defense and Disaster Plans" by the San Rafael Board of Education for use in schools, deserves a place in ethnographic collections which have to do with what (hopefully) future anthropologists might entitle "The Dr. Strangelove Syndrome, or, How Mid-Twentieth-Century Man Was Taught to Accept the Feasibility of Nuclear Warfare."

Especially interesting to (hopefully) future students of our present war-oriented cultural psychopathy will be the attempt on the part of Civil Defense propagandists to include the effects of relatively familiar and small-scale disasters (floods, fires and severe windstorms) with those of nuclear bombing. In pseudo - military language, presumably designed to lend to these instructions the stamp of unquestionable authority, the schoolchildren will be drilled in "Action DROP", "Action TAKE COVER" (to be used in the event of biological or chemical warfare), "Action LEAVE BUILDING" (once known as fire drill) and "Action GO HOME".

I have a suggestion: Replace the time spent in training our (hopefully) future citizens in the skills of "Action DROP" with that in which the effects of a 10-megaton fissionable bomb are described and discussed. Call it "Action REALITY".

Teacher Backs Taxes, Bonds

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As a Corte Madera resident for 14 years, a teacher for 12 and a parent of children in this district, I think my views may have some validity in regard to the coming tax and bond election June 2.

During the last two years I have substituted in Marin County schools, and on many occasions have had the pleasure to teach in the schools of this district.

Therefore, I find it most surprising that this community should so consistently deny minimal support for the addition of needed classrooms, repair of the existing plant and provision of the needed teaching supplies. . . .

I, for one, offer all in my power to aid the district in its school tax and bond election on June 2.

Volunteer Pens Her Appreciation

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Having been an avid reader of your fine paper since we became Marinites 18 years ago and I a volunteer worker for the National Foundation-March of Dimes for the past 17 years, I would like to sing your praises for writing that marvelous editorial of April 30, entitled "See Fund Solicitor At Your Door As He, She Really Is."

No one knows better than I the great need for a kind word of encouragement as well as a contribution from the person whose doorbell has been rung. The volunteer is a sincerely dedicated worker who truly wants to help or he or she would not walk for blocks, up hill and down in all kinds of weather, to collect for a health agency that is dedicated to the easing of human suffering.

As volunteer Patient Care Chairman for the past 10 years, I have seen a great deal of that suffering and it has been an honor and privilege to have served the many hundreds of polio sufferers in Marin, and now we are also serving those children affected with birth defects and reumatoid arthritis, by endeavoring to lighten the financial burdens of their families by supporting treatment centers where they may be referred by their physician or March of Dimes chapters. This and our great research program could not come about without that dedicated door-to-door collector.

Bles them all — and you, too, Mr. Editor, for your kind words. You have made me feel 10 feet tall and I'm sure I also speak for the other thousands of volunteers who work long and hard for the health and welfare of their fellow men.

ONE HOUSEWIFE was describing her troubles to another on the terrace of a Catskill resort. "It's impossible," she complained, "for me to please my husband with my cooking. Take last week, for example. I buy him a fine 12-pound rabbit. Monday, I give him rabbit steak. Tuesday, rabbit stew. Wednesday, barbecued rabbit spare ribs. Thursday, rabbit hamburger. Friday, rabbit goulash. And do you think all these delicacies satisfy him? No, ma'am! Saturday morning he just glares at me with those big, pink eyes!"

HARVEY CAMPBELL met a bride of two weeks at a Detroit Athletic Club dinner who was already somewhat disillusioned with married life. "For six months before I said 'yes'," she confided, "he kept telling me he couldn't live without me and that my love was the one thing that made his days worth while. Then I found out on our honeymoon that he feels exactly the same way about fried eggs and bacon."

HERB STEIN consulted a compassionate doctor who told him, "You'll have to give up wine and women, my boy —but cheer up: you can sing as much as you want to."

Senate Investigators Lashed For Bobby Baker Case Shyness

WASHINGTON—The Democratic majority of the Senate non-investigating committee is showing positive genius in finding ways to prevent itself from getting the evidence in the Bobby Baker case.

I don't mean that the Senate Rules Committee has been idle in its non-investigation. It hasn't. It has worked arduous hours in thinking up ways not to do its work.

It has been quick and alert. When its principal potential witness — Bobby Baker himself — closed one door in its face, the Democratic majority of committee knew exactly what to do. At its own initiative it closed all the other doors of profitable inquiry and went right back to its work of not getting the facts.

Most Washington correspondents are convinced that the committee closed down its non-investigation "just in the nick of time"; that is, before it found anything embarrassing to anybody in the halls of Congress.

THE THEORY must be that Baker, who used his position as Secretary of the Senate Democrats to accomplish we-know-not-what, operated with a dead telephone in an empty office.

When he was first solicited for testimony, Bobby Baker let it be known that he was very busy "writing a book." Some hands in the Senate went to furrowed brows. "Is Bobby writing about me?" they worried.

And then when he was finally subpoenaed, he took the Fifth Amendment when he was asked to give his name.

Whereupon the Democratic majority of the non-investigating committee were unanimously confident that there were no other ways of finding out to whom, for whom, and with whom he had been doing things in the Senate for so many years.

Obviously, what the people want to know, need to know, and have the right to know is how Baker was able to manipulate government in the interests of himself and his friends. To what extent and in what ways had individual senators and the Senate as a whole been involved as pawns, partners, or otherwise in the Baker operations?

These are good questions. And there are others. Surely such questions as these should be addressed to the 100 United States senators:

What, if any, business or financial dealings did you have with Bobby Baker?

DID BOBBY BAKER ever give you, get for you, offer you, or offer to get for you any campaign contributions —and with conditions attached? (One senator, Frank E. Moss of Utah, disclosed that he received an offer of campaign funds from Baker and rejected the money because it was made conditional upon his support of the oil-depletion allowance.)

Did Baker offer any other U. S. senators help to make up campaign deficits through gifts, purchase of tickets or otherwise, any retainer or employment, any preferment in committee assignment, anything of value?

Bobby Baker can, of course, use the Fifth Amendment to refuse to tell the rules committee about his dealings with senators, but can 100 U. S. senators take the Fifth Amendment if they are asked the same questions?

The Democratic majority of the Senate Rules Committee may have reached the peak of its non-investigation when it refused even to allow Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey to appear before it to advocate this line of inquiry.

IT IS TRUE that no Senate committee has the power to subpoena a U. S. senator, but senators can be asked the questions in one way or another.

It is true that they can't be compelled to answer. But even their non-answers would be revealing.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

White House Aides Balk Industry 'Fair'

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—President Lyndon B. Johnson's personal efforts to woo businessmen to support his administration are being seriously undermined by members of his own White House staff.

While the president was scoring a smash hit at the annual U. S. Chamber of Commerce meeting here, presidential assistants Lee White and Charles Horsky were arousing the ire of a group of leading business executives by trying to dictate who should manage a proposed 400 - million - dollar permanent exhibition of products of American industry.

THIS MASSIVE science and industry exposition, being financed and maintained by private funds, is scheduled to be built, following New York's World's Fair, on the outskirts of Washington by 50 of the largest corporations, if President Johnson endorses it.

Originally approved by the late President John F. Kennedy, the private project is now on dead-center because White and Horsky refuse to put the exhibition proposal before the president.

These two White House aides, both holdovers from the Kennedy administration, are taking the position that backers of the non-profit U. S. Exposition of Science and Industry, Inc., headed by former Ambassador James J. Wadsworth, must merge with a group of Washington businessmen who want the project built in downtown Washington to help stimulate business there.

TAKING THE FIFTH — Pointing out that the Washington businessmen had run up considerable financial obligations, including $75,000 to a New York public relations firm, John J. Stack Jr., executive vice president of the Wadsworth group, asked:

"Are you suggesting in the merger that our group assume the financial responsibilities of the Washington group?"

"I refuse to answer that question," snapped White.

"On what grounds?" demanded another member of the Wadsworth group. "The First or Fifth Amendment?"

After getting nowhere with White, the group visited Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges on the recommendation of Clifton Carter, the president's top political adviser.

"We like your project here at Commerce," reported Hodges, "but White and Horsky want the merger. We have specific instructions from them not to endorse the project until that happens."

In a final flanking move to get the project started, the Wadsworth group took their proposal to the Capitol, where Senate Democratic Whip Hubert Humphrey agreed to intervene for them with President Johnson. He promised to take up the project directly with the president, by-passing both White and Horsky.

Ho-Hum Tenor Of Marin Mayor Elections May Be Threatened

SAY, COMRADE, DID you notice how smoothly the election of mayors went in Marin's nine general law cities?

In all but one of them, there was just one candidate and the vote was unanimous. Could almost lead you to conclude that things had been pre-arranged. But it was an open and free election. You have got to admit that.

Only in Belvedere was there the embarrassment of a contest. Merritt K. Ruddock won over John R. Moore in a 3-2 vote.

DON NIVENS, WHO writes for a captive audience in the San Quentin News, reports in his column, "Bastille by the Bay," that there have been great strides in education made there recently.

"Note to local school districts: San Quentin educators, after lengthy research, have solved the drop-out problem. This information will be released to the public soon in a pamphlet entitled 'Disciplinary Action'."

We'll be watching for it, Don. Thanks.

SPEAKING OF education, the San Rafael Board of Education is going through a good deal of embarrassment trying to find someone to come work as assistant superintendent of elementary education. After several months of screening and interviewing candidates, members of the board drew a deep breath and offered the job to the best man. So what happened? Right, the best man turned it down.

The position, by the way, will have been vacant a year come next month.

RECEIVED A CALL from a woman in Corte Madera the other day who wanted things straightened out on the new state law that allows an override tax for junior high school education.

The way we understand it is that the extra tax can be socked on only to cover that cost which is over and above the cost of education in the primary grades. Who figures out what the difference in cost is? The school district, natch.

Some school district superintendent were evidently under the impression that the whole cost of junior high education could be covered by the over-ride. This is not the case. The thing is bad enough the way it is.

If a school district is considering this route, it might try an election. There's nothing in the law that says it has to, but it might be a nice gesture.

The North Marin Water District, after all, wants a vote on fluoridation. It does not have to have one, but it's a nice gesture. Darn good politics, too.

ART BUCHWALD

Art's Friend Strikes A Blow For Freedom From Petty Mail

WASHINGTON—The other day we received in the mail a magazine we did not subscribe to. We also received a bill from our favorite credit card company for the magazine. When we called up and protested the bill, we were informed that they had sent us a letter the previous month telling us that if they didn't hear from us saying we didn't want the magazine we would automatically be put down for a subscription.

We threw the magazine in the corner with about 100 other items we had been sent without our permission, including books, records, license plates, Indian dolls, bird cages and Christmas cards.

Our wife, who is nervous by nature, said, "You've got to send it back."

"Who says so?"

"They do."

"That's how much you know. I didn't ask for their junk and I'm not going to spend the postage to send it back to them."

"I'm afraid."

"They want you to be afraid. They count on it. They're selling by fear," we said.

"I know we're doing something wrong. I'm not sure what it is, but we keep getting bills from all those companies and one day somebody is going to drive up in a police van and take us all away."

IN ORDER to calm her we called up a distinguished Washington lawyer, and, after being assured that he would not charge us for the advice, we demanded to know our legal rights in regards to unsolicited gifts.

"What do you do when somebody sends you something you didn't order and demands payment for it or return of the product?"

"Nothing. You don't have to send it back. Nor do you have to pay for it. Of course, you can't use it. If you did, that would mean you agreed to buy it."

"Can I throw it away?"

"You can after a reasonable amount of time. But it is your duty to keep the product for the person in case he comes back for it. You also have to keep it in good condition."

"DO YOU MEAN to say if someone sends me a magazine, I can't look at it, but I have to keep it in case he comes back for it?"

"Yes, that's the law. Of course, you can charge him a storage fee. After all, you are keeping the magazine for him, and it is taking up space. The more magazines you keep for him the higher the storage fee you can charge."

"What worries me though is, if I don't pay for the subscription, they'll mark me down as a lousy credit risk."

THE LAWYER SAID that one of the biggest rackets was companies' sending out trinkets under some foundation name and indicating that the proceeds went to charity. "About 30 per cent goes for charity, the rest goes into the pockets of the sponsors."

"Of course," he said, "I go one step further. When I want to get even with someone who has sent me something I didn't ask for, I take the business reply card or envelope which says, 'No Postage Stamp Necessary If Mailed In the U. S.' and paste it on the largest and heaviest package the Post Office will permit, and send it back to the company. By obligation they have to pay for the postage on the package. I know it's a small thing but I try to strike a blow for freedom whenever I can."

Election In Panama –If It Is Held– May Be Dishonest

Most Popular Candidate Is Considered Pro-U.S.

By DANIEL JAMES Advance News Service

MEXICO CITY—As Panama approaches her presidential election on May 10, speculation is increasing here as to whether, if held, it will be an honest election.

Hanging in the balance is the fate of U.S.-Panamanian talks, hardly begun, over the Panama Canal Treaty and related issues.

The chances of a fraud being committed, or a coup taking place, are considered good by many observers essentially because the government wishes to prevent the election of the candidate who is considered pro-U.S., Dr. Arnulfo Arias. He also happens to be the most popular candidate, and the one regarded as most likely to win.

One of the two is the government candidate, Marco Robles, who enjoys the complete backing of President Roberto F. Chiari. Robles is thoroughly committed to the Chiari position of insisting on rewriting the canal treaty so that Panamanian sovereignty over the canal will be established, the control wrested from the United States.

Robles also happens to be an associate of Chiari's in various lucrative business ventures, which would presumably profit from proposed treaty revisions upping canal tolls and providing other economic benefits. And he is a member of the ruling oligarchy consisting of 40 prominent Panamanian families.

The third main contender for the presidency is Juan de Arco Galindo, who has held virtually every cabinet post during the last few years and is also high up in the oligarchy. Galindo is somewhat more nationalistic—and presumably anti-U.S.—than Robles and is flirting with the far left. Among his chief backers is the rabid pro-Castro deputy in the national assembly, Thelma King, who is seeking re-election.

To retain Miss King's support, Galindo has refused to attack Cuba's Communist regime—the only major candidate who hasn't done so.

Even Arnulfo's enemies concede that he will poll one-third of the 300,000 votes expected to be cast on May 10—enough to virtually insure election. His supporters say he will pick up 200,000 votes. Dividing the difference in the two calculations, it would appear that Arnulfo is a shoo-in.

But the government does not want Arnulfo in power, and the position of the powerful national guard, the determining factor, is ambiguous. The trouble is that Arnulfo has a long-standing feud with the guard, and its commandante, Col. Bolivar Vallarino, has vowed to prevent him from becoming president.

Vallarino could do so by looking the other way while the government throws out enough Arnulfo ballots to declare its own candidate, Robles, the "winner." Or, if that proves impossible, he could stage a preventive coup.

The national guard has often intervened to decide Panamanian elections, and did so 15 years ago in favor of Arnulfo. At that time, the government dawdled for months while it threw out enough ballots of the overwhelmingly popular Arnulfo to cause him to "lose" to its candidate. But the guard, then against the government, declared him the rightful winner and the election board meekly approved after acknowledging it had made "errors" in counting the ballots.

Electoral frauds have been the rule all through Panama's 61 years an as independent republic. She is known to have had only one election, in 1932, that could be considered honest.

So, a fraud this time is by no means excluded.

But even if Arnulfo is allowed to take office, how much good will that do both Panama and the U. S.? What sort of president would he make?

Arnulfo has been president twice before, in 1941 and 1949, and each time was thrown out after a short period in office.

In those days, he was rabidly anti-U. S. as president during the first part of world War II, he was openly pro-Axis and tried in exery way to sabotage allied efforts in what was then a critical area, the Panama Canal.

He persisted in his "Panama for the Panamanians" demagogy into his second term. After being overthrown, he was forbidden to run again for the presidency—a ban only recently lifted—and remained out of politics for some 14 years.

"We must learn what the United States wants, and try to harmonize our national interests with those requirements."

If he is elected on that kind of platform, and carries it out as president, then the chances are good for four years of amicable U. S.-Panamanian relations and a canal treaty revised to the mutual satisfaction of both sides.

If nothing else, Arnulfo has rendered a gerat service to both his own country and the United States by proving that the Panamanian people are not anti-American and not heeding the inflammatory anti-U. S. propaganda of the ultranationalists and extreme leftists.

He is proving that by getting big turnouts at his rallies, especially among the dominant peasant population, although he makes pro-U.S. speeches and is damned by the ultra-nationalists-leftist combination as a "gringo-lover."

Yet Arnulfo is unpredictable. Some call him mysterious. Certainly his background is checked. In addition to having embraced Narism-Fascism, he was—or still is—a rosicrucian and a believer in astrology.

He is also a well-educated man and a graduate of Harvard Medical School.

With such a man in the presidency, anything might happen. But that will become academic if no election is held on May 10, or if it is a fraudulent one.

Bulldozer Moves School Topsoil

The topsoil had been left in piles at the school when it was constructed in 1962. The school's parent-teacher association raised $750 from the sale of Christmas trees last Christmas to finance the distribution of topsoil and planting of grass.

Increase Of Measles Reported In Marin

Measles appeared on the increase in Marin County last week, as 61 cases were reported to the county health department.

Most of the cases were in San Rafael, where 46 were reported. Sausalito had six, Novato four, Corte Madera two, and Kentfield one. Two other cases were in other unincorporated areas.

There also were 35 cases of mumps, 28 strep infections and eight cases of gonorrhea.

San Rafael had the highest number of mumps reports, with 17. Sausalito had eight, Mill Valley four, and Corte Madera two, with other reports in Larkspur and San Anselmo.

There were 14 strep infections in San Rafael, five in Novato, three in San Anselmo and two in Corte Madera, with others in Sausalito, Mill Valley and Ross.

Two cases of gonorrhea were reported in San Anselmo, with others in San Rafael, Marin City and unincorporated areas.

Plaques Installed

Five bronze plaques, gifts of Redwood High School's class of 1963, have been installed in the senior quadrangle. The plaques, one for each of the five graduating classes at the school, are inscribed with the names of the graduates.

Two Bound Over On Theft Charges

Three men charged with the March 15 burglary of a shoe store in the Nave Shopping Center in Novato were bound over to Marin Superior Court yesterday for trial.

They are Rioh Heigh Rizzo, 20, of Richmond, Tommy Jean Havlin, 21, San Pable, and Lee Gary Tonkin, 22, formerly of Napa. They allegedly looted the Family Shoe Store of $60.

Rizzo was a former employee there and Havlin worked for the store until his arrest on the charge officers said.

DeGaulle To Play Down Role Of South American Financier

By GEORGE W. HERALD

PARIS (WPS) — President Charles de Gaulle is busily preparing for his September trip to Latin America, but it will be a different kind of visit than he originally planned.

He still intends to go to all the countries that have invited him, but those that expect him to arive with checkbook in hand are in for a disappointment.

The French Government no longer plans to grant any large-size, long-range loans to South American countries and has curtailed its ambitions to outshine the United States in the area.

According to Paris political observers, several recent developments have prompted General de Gaulle to soft-pedal his "offensive" in Latin America. Here are some of the main reasons offered for his now more cautious approach:

Mexico: De Gaulle's trip to Mexico was not the unadulterated triumph it was expected to be. It is true that the general was feted like a hero by the crowd, but in his dealings with the Mexican Government he has not been so successful.

In the spring of 1963, France had opened a credit of 150 million dollars to Mexico, that was divided in three parts: 1) a 13-year loan of 100 million dollars at 6.25 per cent interest, to be used for the construction of sugar refineries and petro-chemical plants with the aid of French firms; 2) an 8-year bank loan of 20 million dollars at 6.5 per cent interest to facilitate purchases in France: 3) a 12-year government-to-government loan of 30 million dollars without any interest.

But so far Mexico has ordered no material from France for sugar refineries and very little for its petro-chemical industry; i.e., it has left those loans largely unused.

Searching for an explanation, the French discovered to their surprise that they had been outmatched by American and West German competitors who offered Mexico the same type of materials at more attractive credit rates.

Brazil: The French feel—and on this matter the government and the press are for once unanimous — that no help from the outside can be effective in Brazil so long as its leaders have not carried out a number of drastic social and economic reforms.

President de Gaulle does not particularly care who promotes these reforms. Judging by his own experience, he is inclined to believe they will be accepted only if thy come from a conservative who cannot be suspected of pro-Communist leanings.

But he holds the reforms inevitable and, until a beginning is made, he will be careful not to invest French public money in Brazil.

The Cartier Doctrine: In the past few weeks Raymond Cartier, one of France's most prominent journalists, has published in "Paris-Match" a series of articles sharply attacking President de Gaulle's foreign aid policy.

Monsieur Cartier is a firm believer in the old English proverb: "Charity begins at home." He charges in his articles that much of the money given to African and other foreign governments has not benefited the starving masses but has been misused by a few "bigshots" for their personal aggrandizement.

Such funds, says Cartier, could be put to much better use inside France which remains far behind other European countries in such fields as housing, highways, hotels, bathrooms, telephones and tractors.

The sensation created in Paris by Cartier's articles is all the greater since he has been only for his employer Jean Prouvost (the French Henry Luce) but for a group of prominent French businessmen and industrialists.

The Gaullists immediately denounced "Cartierism" and declared that "France would not be true to herself if she stopped helping those in the world who are in need."

Though public opinion has tended to side with the Gaullists, Cartier's blast has nonetheless had a certain effect on French official policy.

The tendency is now to limit French air to former colonies and to be wary of fresh commitments.

Nuclear Program Crisis: Last but not least, French budget-makers are disturbed by the growing costs of France's nuclear armament program.

According to the experts, the program is behind schedule and will probably cost 30 per cent more than originally anticipated.

Under these circumstances, President de Gaulle's prospective trip through Latin America will have the primary goal of renewing old cultural ties and heightening France's prestige in that part of the world.

He will, of course, also encourage the development of private trade between France and the countries he will visit, so long as the trade is privately financed.

But he is expected to make it clear, however regretfully, that France simply hasn't the resources to cope with heavy defense expenditures, keep her own economy healthy, and play the role of financier on far-away continents.

Blues, Folk Concert Scheduled Friday

A concert of blues and folk music by Mance Lipscomb will be given Friday at 8:30 p.m. in the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley.

Young People's Art Deadline Is Extended

Deadline for obtaining entry blanks for the annual exhibition of young people's art sponsored by the Novato Society of Advanced Art has been extended from May 9 to May 16.

Rules may be obtained at Ludins Art Center, 1327 Fourth Street, San Rafael; Torrance Gallery, 128 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo, and B. F. Edwards Stationery, 1219 Grant Avenue and Bea's Sew Sew Shop, 824 Grant Avenue, Novato.

Entry blanks for the exhibit entitled, "What I See When I Think of My Country," are to be mailed to Mrs. Ethan Papineau, 1225 Ridgeview Court, Novato.

Deadline Near For Novato Summer High

Deadline for registration for summer school at Novato High School will be Friday, said Joseph Garguilo, summer school principal.

Many new courses will be added to the summer school program this year, Garguilo said. These include mathematics and English in ninth grade, aimed at the Hill Junior High School graduates who want to get a head start on their high school studies, he said. Others include cooking for boys, aeronautics and navigation, dance, geology, economics, shorthand, and "great ideas and books."

Some courses, such as driver training, have been filled, he said.

Unification Sessions Set Around County

Twelve informal coffee hours at which the proposed unification of school districts within the Tamalpais High School District will be explained and supported will be sponsored by the Committee for Better Schools through Unification starting tonight.

A member of the County Committee on School District Organization or a participant in the League of Women Voters' study on school district organization or a candidate for trustee of the proposed unified district will be present at each public meeting.

Meetings will be held at the following places:

Today at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Durr, 470 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, with Mrs. Marietta Larson speaking.

Tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Banducci, 345 Elm Avenue, Larkspur, with Mrs. Doris Harnsberger speaking.

Next Monday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. William Ferguson, 284 San Rafael Avenue, Belvedere, with Mrs. Frances Compton speaking, and at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Jack Velte, 32 Mountain View, Fairfax, with Mrs. Polly Secor speaking.

Next Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. M. W. Milot, 85 Corte Toluca, Greenbrae, where Mrs. Secor will speak, and at the Samuel Mercer residence at 45 Spring Lane, Tiburon, with Mrs. Harnsberger speaking.

A coffee hour will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Worth, 136 Cypress Avenue, Kentfield, at 8 p.m. Tuesday, where Dr. William Clark will speak.

Mrs. Kerry Warnock of 59 Berens Drive, Kentfield, will host a meeting at her home at 10:30 a.m. May 13.

Thursday, May 14, Mrs. Gilbert Tunison of 10 Hawthorne Lane, Corte Madera, will have a coffe hour in her home, at which Mrs. Frances Compton will speak.

Mrs. Compton will attend a meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Thomas Newton home, 200 South Ridgewood Road, Kentfield.

The same evening Mrs. Frank Wulzen will have a coffee hour at her home at 230 Bretano Road, Greenbrae, where Mrs. Harnberger will speak.

May 20 a meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Caldwell, 56 Meadow Way, Fairfax, at 8 p.m., when Mrs. Secor will speak.

12-Story Building On City Agenda

The Larkspur City Council is expected to act on a request from the planning commission today at its 8 p.m. meeting to retain the city's planning consultant to study plans for a 12-story retirement residence off Via Holon.

The council is also scheduled to consider granting authorization for hiring a building inspector, request from the Chamber of Commerce to lease a parking lot, and a proposed subdivision ordinance.

Four other items on the agenda relate to requests made by former Mayor Lesly A. Daveler.

Unification Talk

Mrs. H. James Compton, League of Women Voters representative, and Mrs. Robert Bastian, nursery school administrator, will speak on the unification of the Tamalpais Union High School District on May 11 at 10 a.m. in the Belvedere home of Mrs. William J. Ferguson.

Sausalito Principals Are Granted Raises

Two principals in the Sausalito School District were granted 5 per cent pay raises by trustees at a budget meeting Monday night.

Robert D. Thomson, principal of Richardson Bay School, will be hiked from $10,450 to $11,330 July 1, and Ralph W. Magnuson, principal at Central and Bayside schools, from $9,435 to $10,615. Morris Brown, principal of Manzanita School, Marin City, was not affected, since he has announced he is planning to leave the district at the end of the school year to move to Contra Costa County.

Salary schedule approved for principals after seven years work was raised from $8,755-$10,790 range to $9,215-$11,330.

Trustees discussed the proposed 1964-65 budget but tabled action for an indefinite time, said Supt. Marcus F. Davis, saying they need to know more about what will happen should unification be approved in the June 2 election, also the effect of the increased appraisals by County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel.

The board held a closed session after the meeting on hiring of teachers and announced it will hold another following the regular board meeting Monday to discuss hiring of a new principal for Manzanita School.

Shakespeare Fete Tryouts Slated At Ross Center

Tryouts for the fourth annual Marin Shakespeare Festival season will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday on the outdoor stage at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross, according to the festival's executive director, John Brebner.

Actors who wish to try out have been asked to prepare from 20 to 30 lines of one of the three comedies scheduled for this year's season, which will run from July 15 through Sept. 5.

The plays are "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Merry Wives of Windsor" and "Taming of the Shrew."

Brebner, his wife, Ann, and Dion Chesse will be directors of the three productions, while ballet dancer Iris de Luce will coach body movements and College of Marin music instructor Drummond Wolff will be voice coach.

Goal Of Courses Subject Of Program

Tonight the English department of Terra Linda High School will present the first of a series of four seminars for parents concerning the content, method and goal of courses.

The presentations, scheduled each Wednesday in May from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., will begin with the freshman English program.

Wilderness Area Renamed For John Muir

The 503,000-acre High Sierra Wilderness Area has been reclassified and enlarged, and is now called the John Muir Wilderness Area. The announcement was made recently as the new John Muir postage stamp was released.

"The fifty years that have passed since Muir's death make it clear that his contributions to forestry and conservation have made an indelible imprint on American history," according to Edward P. Cliff, chief of the U.S. Forest Service.

The new wilderness area stretches 140 miles along the crest of the Sierra Nevada in the Inyo and Sierra National Forests. It encompasses lands rich in wild beauty with numerous lakes, peaks over 12,000 feet high; and a variety of vegetative cover ranging from heavy timber to barren rock outcrops. The John Muir Trail crosses the area.

Reed Meeting On Unity Slated

The Reed District Parent-Teacher Club will hold a meeting on unification of the Tamalpais Union High School District in the Reed School auditorium at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Speakers for unification will be Mrs. Marilyn C. Steinau, a Reed District trustee and candidate for the Tamalpais Unified District board, and Dr. Richard L. Foster, superintendent of Jefferson Elementary School District in Daly City.

Speakers against unification will be David D. Ring, also a Reed trustee, and J. Richard B. Ellis, a member of the Kentfield School District board. Berton Jacobson of Belvedere will introduce the speakers.

New Directors Of Parks Named

James B. Meyers has been appointed assistant regional director for administration in the western regional office of the National Park Service in San Francisco.

Myers will move from North Carolina where he is superintendent of Cape Hatteras National Seashore to assume his new position around June 1.

Sheriff's Posse To Host Trail Ride

The Mounted Sheriff's posse of Marin County will host members of 27 clubs comprising Region One of the California State Horsemen's Assn. this weekend on an overnight trail ride in the Glen Alden area of Lake County.

Reservations may be made through Stanley K. Gobbin, 731 Delmar Avenue, Novato, or H. L. Hunt, 1920 Indian Valley Road, Novato.

To Autograph Book

Margot Patterson Doss, author of "San Francisco at Your Feet," will autograph her book at the Mill Valley Greyhound Bus Depot Friday between 10 and 11:30 a.m. and between 1 and 2 p.m., according to Maggie Grant, book store owner and bus ticket agent.
